Fiscal Policy Draws Fire In Congress

House-Senate Group Calling for Revisions In Monetary Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democratic members of the Senate-House Economic Committee called today for easing of governmental monetary controls and revision of foreign aid, farm aid and other major government programs.

Republicans, criticizing what they called the "partisan political tone" of the report, generally supported President Eisenhower's economic and fiscal policies.

But the committee members split within as well as along party lines in their findings on the annual economic message Eisenhower sent to Congress in January. Lengthy hearings on the message have been held.

File Statements

Three Democratic House members, Reps. Wright Patman (Tex), Hale Boggs (La) and Henry S. Reuss (Wis), filed separate statements supplementing the majority report prepared under the direction of Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill).

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-NY) differed with some portions of the principal minority reported submitted by Sen. Prescott Bush (R-Conn).

The committee members appeared to agree that 1959 will be a relatively prosperous year, with general stability in prices.

Pointing to the millions of unemployed, the Democratic majority said a goal of maximum employment "should be given the highest priority."

Inflation Top Threat

But the Republicans said inflation offers the gravest threat to continued economic growth and expansion, including full employment.

The Democratic majority said "restrictive monetary and credit" policies would discourage employment and injure state and local governments, as well as small business.

It questioned adequacy of the new proposed 41-billion-dollar defense budget and protested manpower cutbacks in the Army and Marine Corps.

It suggested revamping of foreign aid to meet the expanding Soviet economic competition in underdeveloped areas.

FOUR LIVE THROUGH CRASH. Twisted wreckage is all that remains of the front end of this late model car after it flipped end over end in a traffic accident at the Marion Engineer Depot Saturday afternoon. Only two of the four passengers were injured. They were treated at General Hospital and released. The vehicle was driven by Herschel Davis, 47, of 1127 Glenwood Dr. (Story on Page 12)

Local Board Gets Opinion From Brown

Special Balloting Not Possible, Secretary Of State Tells Group

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown ruled today that the city's annexation proposal may not be submitted to Marion Township voters at the May 5 primary election.

The law provides for no special election on annexation issues and the secretary was asked by the Marion County Board of Elections whether Marion Township would be entitled to ballot on the proposal since it would not otherwise be involved in the primary.

Letter Sent to Board

An aide in Mr. Brown's office said the secretary is mailing a letter today to Elandes Miller, deputy clerk of the election board. It says in part:

"You are correct in your understanding that an election may not be submitted to electors on May 5, 1959, since, as you state, a primary vote will not be conducted in Marion Township."

The aide quoted Mr. Brown as saying that the general election in November would be the earliest that the annexation proposal could be submitted.

Answers Second Question

Mr. Brown also referred to a former attorney general's opinion to provide the board with an answer to another question.

The board had asked whether all voters in the unincorporated area of Marion Township would vote on the proposal, or just those in the area to be annexed.

The secretary interpreted the law to mean that the election would include all electors in the unincorporated area since they would have a natural interest in changing tax rates and other factors that would be affected in joining the city.

At its meeting Jan. 26, City Council launched the move to annex five square miles of the township. The petition for annexation was certified to the board of elections last Monday by the county commissioners.

Area Involved

The annexation proposal covered an area which contains the Baker Wood Mfg. Co. plant, the Whirlpool Corp. plant, part of the Erie Railroad yards and diesel shops, the Marion Plaza Shopping Center and Vernon Heights.

The area is bounded on the north by the Williamsport Rd.. (County Rd. 162). The south boundary is an east-west line bisecting Barks Rd. (County Rd. 138).

On the west, the area is bounded by a north-south line about one-half mile west of the Producers Livestock Cooperative yards. The eastern boundary is a north-south line one-half mile west of Pole Lane Rd. (County Rd. 174).

If annexed to the city, the area would change Marion's irregular shape to a rectangle covering 16 square miles.

City Solicitor Riley Hall said the issue will be submitted for a vote by the township in the fall. He said no further legislation will be required by council, that the petition simply "will be carried over until next fall."

Delaware Gas Fails, Leaves 3,800 Chilled

Ice Snarls Regulator; Supply Is Interrupted Sunday, Most of Night

DELAWARE — Workmen today are restoring gas service to some 3,800 Ohio Fuel Gas Co. customers here who were left without heat all day Sunday and most of the night after ice rendered a regulator inoperative.

Some 300 repairmen, including 11 from Marion, were on the scene from early Sunday morning to 7 a.m. today.

Company officials said ice formed in the body of a gas regulator, temporarily cutting off the supply at about 2:30 a.m. Although it was repaired in about 45 minutes, gas lines had to be shut off in each residence to prevent raw gas from escaping during the operation.

Some Evacuated

Workmen were lighting pilots in chilled homes this morning and some aged residents who were evacuated to steam-heated Jane M. Case Hospital are being moved back into their homes.

The gas failure caused no known illnesses, the company reported.

Ohio Wesleyan University students responded to the situation with a display of ingenuity. Members of Phi Delta Theta fraternity moved their furniture outdoors and set up a soup kitchen by using their fireplace which once served only as an ornament. The menu consisted of wieners, soup and marshmallows.

Red Cross Opens Canteen

Most of Delaware's housewives depend on gas for their stoves. The Red Cross opened a canteen in Willis High School where the women were able to use electric ranges in the home economics class.

Other families used their fireplaces for cooking. Some went to Columbus to escape chilling from temperatures which ranged between 18 and 40 degrees Sunday. Others visited relatives whose homes are not serviced by gas.

At the hospital, food for the 100 patients was prepared in borrowed electric skillets and roasters.

Neighbors Assist

Good nature prevailed throughout the temporary interruption. Persons with wood piles passed wood along to neighbors. Students living in dormitories at Wesleyan feasted on roasts that had been prepared a day early.

In addition to Delaware, the gas failure affected some 360 residents of Ashley and 300 in Westerville. Service was restored in Ashley by about 3 p.m. Sunday.

SANTIAGO, Cuba (AP)—A military tribunal has sentenced 43 former members of the air force to prison terms of up to 30 years. A lower court had acquitted them on mass murder charges.

Begins Round of Talks

Macmillan Seeks New Allied Policy

PARIS (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan today began a swing around the capitals of his major allies in search of a Western policy to take into negotiations with the Soviet Union.

Arriving in Paris to confer with President Charles de Gaulle, Macmillan said he feels the Soviets want to negotiate on Berlin.

"The Soviets accept that these immediate problems—Berlin, Germany and so on—ought to be settled by negotiations," Macmillan said.

Concedes Wide Differences

He conceded there are wide differences between the West and the Soviets. He said in view of this, it is all the more important for the Western Allies to get together "to confirm our common policy and purpose."

In East Berlin, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev held a surprising meeting—at Khrushchev's invitation—with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's chief political opponent, Socialist party Chairman Erich Ollenhauer. The meeting, held in the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin, angered West Berlin papers.

Continues Talks

Khrushchev also continued talking with East German leaders about the Red campaign to drive the Western Allies out of West Berlin. He declared at a reception in the East Berlin City Hall that communism will replace capitalism, just as capitalism replaced feudalism, but without war. He warned his fellow Communists that the victory would require "all our will and strength."

Paris was Macmillan's first stop to report to President Charles de Gaulle on his talks in Moscow with Khrushchev. The prime minister returns to London Tuesday night and flies Thursday to Bonn to give West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer a fill-in. On March 19 he arrives in Washington to go over the Western views with President Eisenhower.

At the end of his tour, Macmillan said Sunday, he hopes the West will have concerted "a policy which will be firm and yet flexible enough to reach a successful conclusion of any negotiations."

Agree on Firm Stand

The British, French, West German and U.S. governments all are agreed that they must stand firm against Khrushchev's threat to push the Western Allies out of West Berlin. But they still must work out proposals with which to counter the Soviet threat to write a separate peace treaty with East Germany and give the East German regime control of the Allied supply routes to Berlin.

One of the biggest problems facing Macmillan is the doubt in the minds of Adenauer and De Gaulle about his views on arms reduction in central Europe.

At the conclusion of their Moscow talks, Macmillan and Khrushchev agreed that negotiations on reduction of both conventional and nuclear arms in a zone through central Europe might produce a start toward disarmament.

Parents, Doctor Hopeful

Surgery on Blue Baby Financed by Donations

CHICAGO (AP) — A little boy with an ailing heart who has a legion of friends with kind ones was in a Chicago hospital today awaiting surgery and a possible chance for a normal life.

His parents are optimistic the operation will be a success.

So is the doctor who will perform the operation to correct a "blue baby" condition suffered by the 29-month-old boy, David Stewart, since he was six weeks old.

Thousands Contribute

Among the prayers offered for David's recovery will be those by the thousands of residents of the San Francisco Bay area whose donations made the trip to Chicago and the operation possible. Their contributions of nearly $10,000 financed the trip and the operation, scheduled for Thursday.

David's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stewart of Sharp Park, Calif., accompanied their son on a flight from San Francisco Sunday. The plane was equipped with a special mask and two bottles of oxygen but the ailing boy did not need them.

A police escort arranged by American Legion members took David to Children's Hospital from Midway Airport. Stewart, a Navy veteran, is a legionnaire.

Gratitude Voiced

"We are extremely grateful for the generosity of the people in California and for the kidness of those we have met in Chicago," said Stewart, 25, an insurance salesman.

Dr. Thomas G. Baffes, who developed the first surgical correction of one of the types of "blue baby" conditions known as transposition of the great vessels of the heart, will perform the operation. A successful operation would allow David to live a more normal life. However, he will require more surgery later.

Drive Builds Up for Boost In U.S. Arms

Berlin Crisis Brings Democratic Demand To Step Up Spending

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional Democrats are renewing their demands for stepped-up U.S. military power despite President Eisenhower's assurance no more is needed to meet the crisis over Berlin.

Eisenhower met Friday with Senate and House leaders of both parties. He reportedly told them that there is nothing he wants Congress to do now to beef up U.S. military might. They said they were told the tools needed to deal with the threat to Berlin have been provided.

Call for Larger Effort

But numerous Democrats spoke out during the weekend for more spending and greater military preparedness for longer range development, even as they expressed hope that negotiations will settle the Berlin situation this summer.

Democratic leaders are going ahead quietly with plans to make available up to 750 million dollars more than Eisenhower asked for intercontinental missiles.

While this step is being initiated in the House, a Senate Preparedness subcommittee, headed by Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, will be engaged in a thorough-going reassessment of defense strength.

Hearings Start This Week

Out of these hearings, which start this week, may come recommendations to halt an ordered cutback in the Army from 900,000 to 870,000 men and in the Marine Corps from 200,000 to 175,000 men by June 30.

Democrats who attended the White House conferences did not go as far as some of their party colleagues in open challenge to Eisenhower's assessment of military needs. Nevertheless, some of them said they feel the armed forces should be strengthened.

Repair Work On Water Line Break Begins

Employes of the Marion Water Co. today began the task of repairing a break in a 24-inch water main that disrupted service to the city for 34 minutes Saturday afternoon.

The break occurred just east of the main pumping station located west of the city and service was restored by rerouting the entire water supply into the city through a 16-inch and a 20-inch main.

L. Otis Porter, manager, said that company officials and repairmen were called out very shortly after the break was discovered and arrived at the pumping station within 15 minutes.

Valves were adjusted to shunt the water to the two other mains and pressure was restored in the city 19 minutes later, he said.

Service was reported disrupted in every section of the city, but Mr. Porter said that those living in the central part of the city should have had water pressure from the Gurley Ave. standpipe. He said the water level in the tank dropped to 32 feet during the 34-minute service disruption. Normal level in the tank is 44 feet, he said.

Mr. Porter said that all three of the water mains, the 16-, 20- and 24-inch mains, normally carry the water into the city but that the 16-and 20-inch pipes alone have sufficient capacity to supply daily needs.

Kassem Fighting Revolt

Iraqi Planes Rock Rebel Strongholds

DAMASCUS (AP) — The Iraqi Air Force today bombed the North Iraq center of an army rebellion against Premier Abdel Karim Kassem's Communist-influenced regime. But the rebel radio continued to hurl defiance at the premier in Baghdad.

Broadcasts by the rebel radio in Mosul, the starting point of the revolt, and by the government station in Baghdad were the chief sources of information on the progress of the revolt. Conflicting claims alternated as the day advanced.

Claims Leader Slain

Kassem's regime in Baghdad claimed that the rebel leader, Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf, had been slain by his own men. A later rebel broadcast confirmed that government planes were bombing Mosul but said this would not interfere with rebel activities. It added that Shawaf was leading the struggle against Kassem.

A subsequent rebel broadcast told the Iraqi people not to believe the report of Shawaf's death.

"The revolution leader Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaf, is still at the head of his troops to crush traitors and enemies of the people," it said. It added that the bobardment of Moscul "will not stop the revolution."

Reports Denied

Still later a man who said he was Shawaf went on the Mosul radio to deny he had been killed. He said all reports by Baghdad radio were "lies aimed at misleading the people" and that the "dictatorial rule of Kassem is about to collapse."

Both stations indicated, however that army officers considered sympathetic to President Nasser of the United Arab Republic were trying to topple Kassem, who headed the army revolt against the pro-Western monarchy last July.

Baghdad radio first claimed that Shawaf was fleeing toward the Syrian border, and promised a $28,000 reward for him dead or alive.

Says Regime Near Collapse

The rebel radio in turn said still later that Kassem's regime had "almost collapsed." There was no mention of anything happening to Shawaf.

A government broadcast said loyal troops were in complete control of Mosul. "These are our loyal troops and people," the rebel radio replied. "They now control Mosul and soon will control Baghdad."

At the same time the Mosul radio appeared to temper earlier claims that the rebels controlled all of north Iraq. A broadcast appealed to army units in the north Iraq oil center of Kirkuk as well as in the capital to aid in "destroying the tyrant Kassem."

Quoting the military governor general of Iraq, Ahmed Saleh Elabdi, Baghdad radio said Shawaf has been killed by his own officers and soldiers after his headquarters, presumably in Mosul, was bombed by the Iraqi air force.

"The situation is quiet all over Iraq and security prevails," the government radio said.

More Rain Is Expected In Marion Area Tuesday

Following Friday's blustery return to winter conditions, the weather calmed down over the weekend.

The mercury hit a high of 33 Saturday, fell to an overnight low of 22, then rose to a peak reading of 48 Sunday. It fell to 34 last night and was still 34 at noon today.

An official one-tenth of an inch of rain was measured this morning, and the precipitation continued on into the late morning hours.

The weatherman predicted a day's high of 46 and a low tonight of 32. Clearing and colder was the call for tonight. Tuesday is expected to be cloudy and mild and more rain is expected toward nightfall. A high of 45 is anticipated.

7,000 Attend Exhibit

59 Science Fair Entries Given Superior Ratings

Fifty-nine of the 350 entries in the first annual Marion public school Science Fair copped superior ratings in judging Saturday afternoon at Harding High School, school officials reported today.

More than 7,000 persons attended the open house held Saturday and Sunday in the school gymnasium and science rooms, it was estimated.

Students earning top ratings in these classifications are:

Botany, Lynn Greetham, Lester Slater and Holt Hypes, Harding.

Zoology, Elaine Cilek, Baker; Richard Ishida, Taft; Mary Lightner, Harding; Carol Semmler, Baker; Ben Simmons, Sheryl Spohn and Ronald Tarvin, Harding.

Chemistry, Jim Biddle, Dave Ioerger and Aija Veldre, Harding.

Physics, Jacquie Beisler, Harding; James Benge, Taft; Kenneth Craig, Baker; Earl Crall, Mike Cross, Anthony Drury and Harl Evans, Harding; John Farley and Orison Firstenberger, Baker; Steve Fretz, Edison; Jim Gast, Judy Gebby and Roy Grabman, Baker; Jim Gracey and Bill Green, Harding; Robert Hilborn, Baker; Donald Jones, Harding; Kirk Lyons and Jim Martin, Baker; John Midlam and Curtis Neimeister, Harding; Nancy Oborn, Baker; Mike Perry, Harding; Michael Robinson, Baker; Jack Shaffer, Taft; Sue Shank, Burton Sieder and Steve Smith, Baker; Jim Snider and Pete Sykes, Harding; Dan Vandeford, Sharon Williams and Lowell Williams, Baker; Tim Ziegler, Harding, Jeff Caskey Taft.

Earth Science, Fran Hedgepeth, Baker; Ronald Jaggers, Taft; Jerry Maddox, Harding; Judy Maddox and Sharon Sloane, Baker.

Blast Leaves 1 Dead, 6 Hurt In New Jersey

FAIR LAWN, N.J. (AP) — A three-year-old boy was killed and six persons injured Sunday when an oil burner exploded. The blast wrecked two garden apartments and severely damaged others.

The victim was James Woodruff III, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Woodruff Jr. He was found between two mattresses, pressed under tons of rubble. He was still clutching a teddy bear.

Among the injured were Jimmy's parents. They were admitted to Barnert Memorial Hospital, Paterson, and reported in fair condition.

"I don't know what made me look out the window just then," said Walter R. Olson, whose house is about 200 feet from the explosion site.

"I saw what appeared to be steam and black smoke come from the chimney. Suddenly there was a terrible noise. The whole place disintegrated in a few seconds."

Police said neighbors had been complaining about smoke coming from the boiler room chimney. Apartment superintendent Tom Morrow was not available for comment.

Edmund P. Coffey, vice president of the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, formerly was chief of the FBI Crime Detection and Research Laboratory.

150 Musicians Attend Clinic Session

CLINIC AT COLISEUM. Corpsmen of the Midwest Drum and Bugle Corps Circuit combined talents in a 150-member corps at the annual circuit clinic held Sunday afternoon at the Coliseum. Directing the three-hour march music lesson was Brad Londgo of Syracuse, N. Y., (striped jacket), who is pictured showing Marion corpsmen an easier method of changing keys on their bugles. Marion musicians are (from left to right): Eugene Pletcher, musical director of the Marion Cavalier Drum and Bugle Corps; Wayne Willis, corps president; and Larry Newsome and Craig Anderson, cavalier buglers.

The guest conductor, musical director and arranger for the New York state champions, arranged and taught a march song to the entire group in the first combined clinic to be held in this country. Previously, participating corps presented separate selections at circuit clinics.

Drummers were instructed in a separate session by Richard Brown of Skokie, Ill., before joining the 100 buglers for a drill led by William Ellis and Mr. Willis, co-chairmen of the clinic.

Attending were the entire corps of Bellefontaine, Forest and Marion units, and members of 11 other corps from Ohio, Indiana and Michigan. Drummers and buglers from other states joined the large number of Marion spectators who watched the "show" from the sidelines.

Cavalier wives served lunch to an estimated 300 persons before and after the clinic. The regular monthly circuit business meeting was held at the same time. The next meeting will be April 12 in Dayton.

Fire Reports

FIRE CALLS

(Saturday)

8:26 p.m. to McKinley Park Lake on S. Prospect St. where an oily substance was burning on the lake's surface. Firemen of the Central Station answered the alarm. They said police had the blaze out upon their arrival. Firemen said someone apparently had dumped oil or some similar material on the water's surface and ignited it.

(Sunday)

1:58 a.m. to the corner of Davids St. and Woodrow Ave., site of a building being razed. Trash which had been burned earlier apparently rekindled. Central Station firemen extinguished it.

3 p.m. to the Marvin Large residence, five miles north of Marion on Rt. 4 where a defective chimney set fire to the side of the dwelling. The blaze spread under the roof and burned a hole in the second story floor. Firemen of the Mark St. Station estimated damage at $800. The Morral fire department also responded to the alarm.

INHALATOR CALLS

(Sunday)

7:15 p.m. to 229 S. High St. where Mrs. Clyde Byles, 59, of Delaware, a guest, became ill. The inhalator was operated 15 minutes.

Couple Wins Prizes

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cross of 1224 Mt. Vernon Ave. won several trophies at an auto show in Alliance over the weekend. They won the prize for the most popular car in the show, took first place in the roadster competition, and a second in the best paint job category. They have now collected 26 trophies in 15 shows this year.

Choir, Orchestra Give Joint Concert

Local musical talent came to the fore Sunday afternoon when the Epworth Methodist Church Choir and the Marion Symphony Orchestra joined in presenting a Lenten vesper service before more than 300 people at Epworth Church.

The seven numbers sung by the choir under the direction of George W. Lane provided an inspirational setting for the holy season.

Under the direction of Edward A. Miller, the recently formed orchestra made its first concert-type appearance.

The program drew to a close with the two groups combining to present a stirring rendition of "Festival Finale," commonly known as "God of Our Fathers." The orchestral - choral arrangement was done by J. E. Maddy.

OSU Development Fund Group Plans Campaign

Robert T. Mason Sr. of 139 Merchant Ave. attended a meeting of officials of the Ohio State University Development Fund Saturday in Columbus to plan the 1959 alumni gift campaign.

Mr. Mason is area chairman of the drive for Marion, Morrow, Crawford, Wyandot and Hardin counties. The chairman for Marion County this year will be Jack Weis.

Contributions made during 1958 here placed the county in second place among those areas participating. The 361 gifts totald $1,521 and entitled the county to a scholarship from the university which is to be awarded to a local student.

INFLATION....

...just an "Indian Giver"

Not only is inflation an "Indian giver"—he's a pickpocket to boot.

Under inflation you think you get a few more dollars in pay. But then you go to spend them. Now you find that inflation has already taken back those dollars!

Inflation is caused by a lot of things. But one of the most important is rising labor costs without a substantial increase in the nation's productive efficiency. The reason: 75 percent or more of the final cost of what you buy goes for labor.

It's kind of a chain reaction. With each round of wage and price increases, your dollars lose another chunk of purchasing power.

If things keep on this way another twenty years—or ten—or five—what will happen to your savings, your insurance, your pension plans, your children's education?

Isn't it time to stop this spiral of inflation that eventually robs you of your future security?

The American Iron and Steel Institute brings you this message from the steel industry because

Struck Power Company Hit By Vandalism

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Three more incidents of vandalism at power installations were reported by the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. today. Contract negotiations remained stalemated in the strike of some 1,300 utility workers against the firm.

Company officials said a coal conveyor belt leading from a mine tipple to its Poston power plant in Athens County had been cut at 1:45 a. m.

At 3:58 a. m., a cable leading from the firm's radio transmitter to a tower in its Columbus installation was cut. Service was restored about 45 minutes later.

A 40,000-volt power line west of Columbus was short-circuited at 3:59 a. m., cutting off service to Hilliards, West Jefferson, Alton, Rome and Lincoln Village. A rope had been thrown over power lines drawing them together, company officials said. Power was restored at 4:44 a. m.

A spokesman for the company said the incidents are being investigated, but that the perpetrators are not known.

It will be up to a federal mediator to call for further joint negotiations between the company and the striking International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

The company, which serves customers in 23 central and southern Ohio counties, was struck by two IBEW locals when their old contracts expired at midnight Feb. 28. Supervisory personnel have been operating company installations.

The union has asked for a 6 per cent wage increase plus an additional 10-cent hourly boost for top linemen. The company has offered a 3½ per cent increase.

2 Escapees Caught

ASHLAND, Ohio (AP) — Four hours after two prisoners dug their way out of Ashland County jail they were back in custody. Using spoons and a piece of pipe, Ken Buxton, 21, and Billy Ray Cranmore, 22, gouged a 17-by-8½-inch hole in the wall of the old jail house Sunday. Other prisoners reported the escape and both men were picked up 12 miles away at West Salem.

Held in Slaying

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Elmina M. Mull, 31, Akron, was found beaten to death in her home here Sunday. Police said James Monroe, 28, of Akron, a friend of Mrs. Mull, who was a widow, was arrested in Ebensburg, Pa., and will be returned here for questioning.

Three-State Georgia Manhunt Ends in One-Shot Showdown

TRENTON, Ga. (AP)—A one-shot showdown with peace officers brought death to an Alabama convict at the end of one of the largest manhunts ever centered in the tri-state area of Alabama, Georgia and Tennessee.

Desperado William Smothers, 38 died in surgery at nearby Ft. Oglethorpe Hospital Saturday night a few hours after the police chief of this northwest Georgia mountain city sent a bullet into his shoulder.

Chief H. H. Hutchings and Sheriff Allison Blevens got on the convict's trail through a telephoned tip. They found him in a field near U.S. 11 in the Wildwood community, just south of the Tennessee line and about 20 miles southwest of Chattanooga.

"Smothers drew a gun from under his coat," Hutchings said, "and stuck it in the sheriff's face. "I beat him to it. Before he could pull the trigger, I shot him."

The single shot climaxed a hunt that began Thursday after Smothers, serving six robbery sentences, launched his bid for freedom near Birmingham.

The desperado overpowered Alabama highway patrolman Otto Dees who was taking him from Kilby Prison at Montgomery to Birmingham to stand trial on a pistol possession charge.

Smothers forced Dees and the driver of the patrol car, convict trusty Ted Easley, to go to a house he picked at random. There he made the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Keith, provide food. After that he switched to the Keiths' car and took the four persons with him as hostages.

Fourteen hours later he released them unharmed on Sand Mountain near Flat Rock, Ala.

Tornado Test Slated

WELLINGTON, Kan. (AP)—The U.S. Weather Bureau is sharpening its tornado spotting organization in "Tornado Alley."

More than 200 persons from 32 Kansas and 18 Oklahoma towns met here Sunday to plan a test alert April 1.

A helicopter will impersonate a tornado in three Kansas counties along the Oklahoma border.

Most tornadoes usually are sighted in May, with June second and April third.

7,997 Families Aided

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Red Cross says it has spent $1,925,944 in aiding 7,997 Ohio families which asked for assistance in cleaning up after the recent floods. Another 755 families will receive assistance before March 15. The organization has spent $2,382,965 for disaster relief in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, New York and West Virginia.

Talks To Continue At Three Struck Columbus Dailies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another negotiating session is on tap today in an effort to end a pressmen's strike against the three Columbus daily newspapers, now in its 11th day.

About 70 members of the Columbus Web Pressmen's Union, Local 15, are seeking a new contract to replace one that expired Dec. 31.

The strike began Feb. 26 over the union's demand for higher wages and more overtime pay.

Affected are the afternoon Columbus Dispatch and Columbus Citizen and the morning Ohio State Journal.

Meanwhile, another newspaper, born of the strike, will make its second appearance here today. It is the Columbus Daily News, published and staffed by Local 13 of the American Newspaper Guild.

The News, which is selling for 10 cents a copy, said in its first edition Saturday it will cease publication the day the struck newspapers resume publishing.

The paper ran about 30,000 copies of the first edition.

Announce Way To Help Drain All 8 Sinus Cavities Without Discomfort

New decongestant tablet for sinus congestion sufferers acts both to drain clogged sinus cavities and relieve distressing head pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) Announcement has been made of a new tablet development which has the remarkable ability to help drain clogged sinus cavities and thus relieve congestion and pressure. The headaches, pressure pains, stuffed-up head, nasal drip, clogged breathing—all the unrelenting symptoms the sinus sufferer knows so well—are attacked directly by improving drainage of the sinus areas.

Most remarkable of all is the fact that this is accomplished with extraordinary speed and without discomfort of any kind. This new tablet does its remarkable work internally, through the blood stream. It deposits into every drop of blood plasma a new medication which is carried to the sinus area, where it shrinks the swollen doors to the sinus cavities and helps drain away the pain-causing pressure and congestion.

The shrinking substance in this new tablet has been so successful topically in promoting drainage of the sinus cavities that it is now prescribed more widely by doctors than any material for this purpose. This new medication is now available at drug counters without the need for a prescription under the name, Dristan® Decongestant Tablets. Dristan Tablets cost only 98¢ for a bottle of 24 tablets. Buy and use Dristan Tablets with the absolute guarantee that they will drain away pain-causing pressure and congestion of the sinus cavities, relieve the pain and distress, or purchase price will be refunded.

WHO ARE THESE MILLION MEN THEY CALL "KNIGHTS"?

Whether you are a Catholic or not, you should know the truth about the Knights of Columbus.

Is it, as sometimes rumored, a secret society with designs against our government? Do its members really take an oath to destroy non-Catholic political power?

If such rumors were true, the Knights of Columbus would not deserve the friendship and trust of non-Catholic citizens, which it invites and merits. Actually there is no more thoroughly patriotic organization than this fraternal order of Catholic men.

It is composed of plumbers and lawyers, farmers and doctors, business men at every level of the social and economic scale. Some are rabidly partisan on political and public questions. They "choose up sides" with all the freedom of any other citizens.

The Knights of Columbus was formed in 1882, by a small group of the men of St. Mary's Church, New Haven, Connecticut. They had met, at the invitation of Father Michael J. McGivney, not to form a national fraternal society, but to "render mutual aid to the members of the parish and their families."

In the years that since have ensued, the Knights of Columbus has grown into a fraternal order of more than a million members, spread over the United States, Canada, and other countries of the Western World. But its purpose of "mutual aid" . . . and its principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism . . . remain unchanged after more than 70 years. Millions of dollars have been spent by the order for the relief of victims of fire, flood and famine . . . for the support of Christian youth work . . . aid to Christian education. In both world wars, the Knights performed a service of ministering to the spiritual welfare and comfort of the armed forces regardless of creed, that brought sincerest thanks from a grateful nation.

Nearly one out of every six Knights served his country in World War II, and many laid down their lives.

Despite these and many other signal demonstrations of its principles of charity, unity, fraternity and patriotism, some people have the most absurd beliefs and suspicions about the Knights of Columbus, just as they do about the Catholic Church. Even today, misinformed people give publicity at times to a false alleged Knights of Columbus oath which has been proved to be fraudulent, and which scores of others have been forced publicly to admit is untrue.

This message . . . and others explaining Catholic beliefs and practices . . . are published by the Knights of Columbus so that our non-Catholic neighbors may judge us as we really are — not as we are often misrepresented to be. If you wish, we shall send you free, in a plain wrapper, an interesting pamphlet about this international society. And nobody will call on you. Write for Pamphlet, No. KC-9.

No Law on Books

Phony Unions Continue To Operate Unchecked

By VICTOR RIESEL

After swinging across country for some 4,000 miles, it seems to me that there are almost that many dummy unions operated by the minor muscle muscle men of the old Murder, Inc. and Capone mobs. They set themselves up in these shakedown outfits just as the syndicates once put their boys in bars, little restaurants and "candy" stores as fronts for the numbers rackets.

VICTOR RIESEL

But by calling themselves unions, they are above the law. They operate from the Brooklyn marshes to the Pacific beaches. They terrorize thousands of small merchants.

Some of these dummy unions have been found by the McClellan committee to have just eight or 10 members. Some have only $25 in their so-called treasuries. Some have incomes from dues of less than $50 a month. Some multiply like rabbits and have issued 20 or 30 sub-charters. Some are known to keep their minutes on a single piece of scratch paper or, more likely, on a racing scratch sheet.

THEY STAY above the law. They mockingly go through the rituals entitling them to protection under the law as legitimate unions. So you can't touch these mobs, though some of their "business agents" have records of 35 or 40 arrests ranging back to 1924 for any crime you can mention.

There is an "international union" which calls itself "The Federated Service Workers Union." It is typical. It was organized by a handful of men on July 18, 1950, in Brooklyn, U.S.A. The group sat around and picked a fellow by the name of Evans as president because he had a nice sounding name. They then declared themselves an international union.

They've been running it for almost nine years. They have the same rights as the Steel Workers, Auto Workers or the Machinists. In fact, the FSWU set up smaller dummy unions which sound just like those in the AFL-CIO — although one of the locals, No. 19, has recently been described by the McClellan committee as a haven for former Murder, Inc., goons.

TYPICAL of the dummy unions they "chartered" are such outfits as Bank Employes Local 10 and a few Journeymen Barbers, Locals 11 and 15.

Local 12a and 12 of the Laundry Workers Union — which has nothing to do with the regular Laundry Workers—were unleashed. There is a Restaurant and Cafeteria Workers Local 26. Recently the word "Hotel" was added to this outfit. And they are in the new business of harassing New York inns.

There's a Clerical Workers Local 16; a Mechanical Workers Local 17; a Messengers Local 512; a Pressers Local 27 (imitating the legitimate one in the Ladies Garment Workers Union); an Auto and Service Workers Local 21 and even a Transport Workers local (no tie to the regular union of that name).

And, of course, there's the now famous Juke Box Local 19.

To make all this look real the international officers ran a "convention" not too long ago. The three delegates sat down to dinner in a Brooklyn restaurant. That was on the night of Sept. 24, 1957.

It was the only "convention" in history to do business during a five-course meal. They had "convention proceedings" — right regular. They simply scribbled some notes on a single piece of scrap paper. But under the law theyare an international union.

McCLELLAN COMMITTEE records — and those of investigators across the country — show that some of these "unions" are merely multi-million dollar shakedown operations.

They simply use the right to picket — to put a man in front of a store or a restaurant — and have a regular price list for the removal of the animated caricature of a real working man. They rent desk space and install a phone. They even are among the 36,000 unions which file financial statements with the U.S. Department of Labor. Under the present law these statements can't even be checked, nor can false filings be punished.

Without a new anti-racketeering law — these shadowland unions will become mighty powerful dummies.

Pennylvania Girl Is Pageant Queen

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A pretty brunette who has been talking only 10 of her 17 years today wears the title of America's Junior Miss.

Stately Miss Judi Humphrey of Lewistown, Pa., was selected from 10 finalists to climax the four-day pageant Saturday night. She squealed loudly when her name was called.

The new queen didn't talk until she was seven because of a vocal chord disorder. An operation corrected the trouble and her tireless practice brought her the diction and voice that won the spectators and judges.

Runners-up, in order, were Peggy W. Kerwin, Webster Groves, Mo.; Linda Couch, Tampa, Fla.; Diane Eleanor Lee, Nome, Alaska, and Kathleen Honish, Shorewood, Wis.

Advice Ignored

FORT HALL, Idaho (AP)—State policeman Oscar Miller spotted a man walking on busy U.S. Highway 91 Saturday night. He stopped to warn him to walk on the shoulder.

Two hours later, Miller was ordered to investigate an accident in which an auto had killed a pedestrian.

He said the victim, William Jordan, a transient laborer about 65, was the same man he had talked to earlier.

'Heroes' of TV Visit Stricken Arizona Youth

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Gilbert Schooling, 15, dying of muscular dystrophy and pneumonia, met his heroes in person Sunday.

He looked out of his oxygen tent and a smile split his face when he saw movie star Pat O'Brien, auto racer Jimmy Bryan and television actor Tris Coffin.

They were old friends to Gilbert. He had watched them often on TV. He told his best friend, Sheriff's Dep. Jerry Centner, he'd like to have them come to see him.

Centner said that turned out to be no problem.

O'Brien handed the youth a baseball autographed by all the Boston Red Sox, training at nearby Scottsdale.

Gilbert thought it was great but he said a little wistfully, "I wish it had come from my own San Francisco Giants."

The veteran actor choked off tears later when he said, "I came to give the kid a lift and instead he gave me one. I have four of my own but I felt he was one of them."

Bryan left a model of the racer in which he won the 1958 Indianapolis 500-miler.

Coffin, star of TV's "26 Men," the story of the Arizona Rangers, left a marshal's star and autographed pictures.

U.S. To Launch 9 Camera Satellites From Florida Site

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Nine giant camera satellites will be fired into orbit aboard powerful Atlas missiles starting next September, informed sources say.

Persons close to the project reported Sunday the camera satellites, weighing about a ton, will be blasted into short-lived orbits to take pictures of most of the earth's surface, including the heartland of the Soviet Union.

The program, called "Project Sentry," will use a two-stage Atlas ICBM as the booster for the bulky payload.

There were no details on the camera itself or how it would perform, but it was learned that the project was shifted to the Cape from Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

Sentry is just one of a number of important space roles being assigned the workhouse Atlas which soared into orbit on its own last Dec. 18.

The sun has a diameter of 864,000 miles. Its mass is 330,000 times that of the earth.

Evangelistic Conference Scheduled in Mansfield

Marion residents will attend a regional evangelistic conference in Mansfield Tuesday for pastors, evangelists and Christian workers. It will be conducted by the founder of Bob Jones University at Greenville, S.C., and the Rev. John R. Rice, editor and publisher of the Sword of the Lord, evangelistic periodical.

Sessions will be at the Caesarea Church at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. and at 7:30 there will be a meeting at John Simpson Auditorium. This will be one of a series of conferences scheduled throughout this country by the well-known clergymen. The purpose is "to strengthen Bible-believing Christians and encourage uncompromising, scriptural evangelism."

A Principle Has Been Laid Down

Gov. DiSalle's special messages have been coming along so thick and fast they aren't getting the attention they deserve.

His message on conflict of interests in government will bear re-reading from time to time, which may have been his motive in getting it on the official record.

No member of his official family and no Ohioan who holds any political position of importance can claim, in the event of trouble, that he did not know how the governor of the state felt about the importance of a public trust.

"The public employe's responsibility to his public trust must be undivided," is the theme of the DiSalle pronouncement on conflict of interests in government.

In the bill that accompanied the special message, it is made clear that this would mean, if enacted, a purification of interests so widespread that no conflicts would remain.

On the supposition that no man can serve two masters whose interests are not identical every man in a position of trust would be required to choose whether his master would be the public and if so to forswear all others while in public office.

It goes without saying that such a proposal will find scant favor in a General Assembly heavily populated with members who do not think of their legislative duty as a major interest in view of the fact it takes a minor part of their time. But it also goes without saying that members of the General Assembly and all other Ohio officials now know what the official climate is.

"I said in my State of the State message," Gov. DiSalle recalled, "that it was my hope that we could develop an 'esprit de corps,' a price in being affiliated with public service. This we can accomplish in part by establishing high standards of conduct; standards that will apply to all equally; standards that will assure the individual's complete devotion to his primary obligation to the state."

The first time Gov. DiSalle has occasion to preach a sermon to a wayward state employe, the text is already written.

But Is the Customer Always Right?

The steel industry never poured out production at its current high rate before, and for weeks to come records will continue to fall. The feast that everybody knew would come after the famine is in full swing.

A year ago, however, the famine was starting, and some things about it are not easily forgotten.

Steel experts hammered with all the logic they could muster on the theme that their customers were using up inventories past the point of safety.

Spokesmen for the industry pointed time and again to hand-to-mouth buying as proof that steel users were being shortsighted and would regret it when demand for steel sharpened.

Potential customers were warned they would be unable to get prompt delivery when inventories finally were exhausted completely and all of them piled on one another for quick supplies.

Employers in the steel industry were forced to tell their employes with what grace they could muster that shortsightedness on the part of customers was forcing an unnaturally aggravated slump in jobs.

There was not a single aspect of the steel picture in 1958 that made good sense to the steel industry and its employes. It was no comfort, either, to know that about this time in 1959 the spokesmen who had been pleading with customers of the industry to be moderate in inventory reduction would be able to sigh, "I told you so."

Everybody wants steel now.

To the extent that some of the steel they want could have been ordered months ago when the mills were more than half closed down for lack of business, the rush is hard to rationalize.

Steel is not a seasonal industry — not by any stretch of the imagination. Yet, during 1958 and even during the first weeks of 1959 it was unnaturally and unreasonably quiet because the customers who are "always right" were persisting in an attitude that did not make good sense.

All Out of the Same Purse

A proper apology has been made to Ohio State University by Jerome Ellison, who confused it with Ohio University in the Saturday Evening Post, but there is much more to be considered here than an author's error.

It is to be hoped Ohio will consider the author's contention that money is being spent on facilities for higher education in many tax-supported colleges and universities that is not paying off in educational results because there are too many high-jinks and not enough study.

Whether one particular outburst of high-jinks in Ohio occurred at Ohio University or Ohio State University is immaterial. Both are tax-supported. The money is all out of the same purse.

Since this is budget time in Columbus and Ohio has six institutions of higher learning drawing on taxpayers for support, it is timely to be reminded that Bowling Green, Kent, Miami, Ohio University, Ohio State University and Central State College are in the budget for close to 99½ million dollars — considerably less than they requested for the biennium but 100 million dollars to all intents and purposes.

This is a major item. It justifies major curiosity about educational policy — not that one article in one magazine has raised questions that no one ever raised before but that the author, who is on the faculty of Indiana State University, has raised questions that everybody has a right to raise when tax money is being spent.

Is there something wrong with admittance standards and performance requirements in tax-supported schools that may be causing taxpayers to put out substantial sums of money for the sake of education that simply cannot be shown to be producing any real education because "students" are not being required to do any real work?

Ohio taxpayers do not care whether there was a minor mixup in the identity of one of their tax-supported schools. They have a powerful financial reason to wonder if Jerome Ellison's question: "Are We making a Playground Out of College?" can be answered No in the case of Ohio's tax-supported colleges.

Trust-Busting the Hardened Hundred

If you, too, are beginning to feel frustrated by an endless parade of shady-side witnesses whose attorneys tell them "to take the fifth" in congressional investigations, there may be a better day coming.

The Wall Street Journal has reported an important project in the U.S. Department of Justice to catch racketeers in the Sherman Antitrust Act. The theory of the trap being readied for them is intriguing.

It consists of the probability the racketeers and their advisers, who have learned how to squirm around ordinary criminal and tax laws, will need several years to get the hang of evading antitrust laws.

Moreover, as the Department of Justice sizes up its chances of nailing some of the biggest operators on its master list, the Hardened Hundred, the very nature of a racketeer will be on the side of the law. Racketeers will not tolerate competition. Their fixed aim is to get rid of all competition; to sew things up for themselves.

Therefore, to the extent that they make the mistake of setting up "business" organizations to carry on their activities they can be prosecuted under the same antitrust laws that keep legitimate business from getting rid of competition.

Even if they pretend to be unionists instead of businessmen, they can be nabbed for any illegal move that has no direct bearing on unionism. Unions, of course, are exempt from antitrust laws, but only insofar as they perform as cooperative associations for the advancement of their members. Whenever they begin to operate as businesses for the advancement of their executives they are in business.

In the noisome era when Scarface Al Capone and his hoodlums were defying the law, there was this same sense of frustration. The federal government saved the day by showing how the hoodlums could be trapped in their own income tax returns. The same larceny that made them become hoodlums made them try to cheat the government. Today, they are too foxy for that, but they still have to learn the antitrust ropes.

The Once Over

An Ohio bank robber used an airplane. The wide green yonder.

The Supreme Court decision letting a railroad drop the historic Hudson River ferry lines without a dissenting vote indicates the justices had formed a dislike for ferryboat violinists but never had to go to and from work daily on such a vessel. This being a matter of ferry dockage the court would have summarized the decision by the mere word to the railroad "Your slip is showing."

Madison Avenue is out with its first liquor trade ads picturing women. Such beautiful types are being used that at first glance it's hard to tell if the advertisement is for minks or drinks. Liquor is no longer generally regarded with old-time disfavor, and the distillers' decision to use the fair sex in ads for the first time has aroused little criticism.

The ads are certainly more attractive, and, since the gals have been used in the brewery trade for years, it's easy to understand their decision. Whisky ads have been commonplace for generations and the trade sees no reason why they should be dull or drab any longer.

Seagulls have been bombarding roof of a Long Island home, dropping clams and other shellfish to the annoyance of tenants. Seagulls are well known to make the practice of opening clams, etc., by dropping them on a shore road or other hard surface. We know a waterfront town where gulls pick up lost golf balls, mistaking them for round clams and drop them on buses and private cars. It's quite disturbing, but we have retrieved quite a few golf balls on the bounce and felt inclined to hire some gulls to assist our caddies.

Showdown Delayed

By David Lawrence

The Berlin crisis is running true to form. Just as it appears to be coming to a climax that could mean war, the Soviet bluffer-in-chief retreats a bit. This is the art of maneuvering, which is historically known as dictatorship diplomacy.

Lawrence

The Soviet ruler now says that the May 27 deadline on forcing Western troops out of Berlin can be moved forward if "sensible negotiations" are under way with the Western powers. Prime Minister Macmillan is hailed as having won this important "concession" from Khrushchev during his recent visit to Moscow.

The moves in the chess game are all too palpable. The British prime minister has said that the West might even be willing to pull some of its troops away from West Germany provided the Russians pulled away from East Germany.

This is a form of "disengagement" which has been debated for many months. In essence, it means a retreat and withdrawal by the West in the face of Soviet pressure. It may not make the West Germans happy but it satisfies the peace-at-any-price sentiment inside Britain, where the British prime minister faces political opposition from the appeaser group all the time.

MEANWHILE, President Eisenhower at his press conference last week was careful not to criticize the British prime minister's mission or its results because, after all, the purpose of the visit was solely to elicit information as to the Kremlin ruler's attitude rather than to reach agreements. As a piece of probing of the other side's intentions, it was to some degree successful.

Mr. Macmillan can also retreat if need be when he finds the American, French and West German view to be in accord with the military recommendations of Gen. Norstad, commander of the NATO forces.

Military men of the West don't think it helps the morale of their forces to be withdrawing Allied troops from West Germany under pressure from Moscow.

Coincidentally in this country, the secretary of defense, Neil McElroy, at a news conference gave the impression that, far from retreating, the United States intends to advocate resistance by force should there be any attempt to compel the Allied troops to get out of Berlin in violation of the existing four-power wartime agreement.

THE SECRETARY also remarked that, while there would be reluctance to use nuclear weapons, they certainly would be used if necessary but that he hoped that the friction over Berlin "would not get to the point where that kind of war action would be required."

So from one side comes the usual pressure to win concessions by threat - of - war and bluff tactics. From the other side comes the firm language of potential resistance so that the Soviets will not miscalculate and, in the belief that there would be no resistance at all, take some step that would bring on war.

One reason for the cockiness of the Soviets is the reported belief in the Kremlin that the American people voted against the Eisenhower administration in the 1958 elections and that in 1960 a Democratic administration is coming into power which will be favorable to Moscow.

President Eisenhower's call of congressional leaders to a White House conference Friday to discuss the Berlin problem is designed, as was the National Security Council meeting last week, to disabuse the minds of the Russians that the American government is disunited on its policy of potential resistance to any forced withdrawal of Allied troops from Berlin.

There is, moreover, in Moscow at the moment the mistaken belief that the British viewpoint may tend to diverge from the American. This, too, is a fallacy, for, when the chips are down, it is most likely that the Western Allies will be found united.

In the face of such unity, the Soviet government may content itself with handing over paper sovereignty to the East German government and then asking the United Nations to settle the status of Berlin.

Such a development, while inconclusive, could at least avert a war and leave the ultimate disposition of Berlin to be negotiated over a long period of time.

And How Are Things?

By Truman Twill

This is a yelp for help.

No one will heed it, and it's unlikely anyone will hear it.

But when a bunch of delgates to the World Press Congress at Columbia, Mo., said I should pay more attention to Latin American news, I got scared.

These fellows think I should have known more about Cuba than I knew when Batista was running things into the ground. They point out that I am in ignorance of South America—and they're right.

But if they want to set me right they will have to take their place in line.

First, I want to get straightened out about China and Japan, which have baffled me throughout my adult lifetime. Then comes central Asia. A fellow asked about Afghanistan the other day, and I couldn't tell him much about it.

When hell started to pop in a place called Nyasaland, I had to get out a map and my World Almanac to fix it in my mind. I didn't even know who was responsible for its existence.

I have not the foggiest notion how things are in Africa outside of Nyasaland, either. My African images are limited to sphinxes and diamonds. There are republics in Africa I never heard of and politicians whose names mean nothing to me.

I cannot even rattle off the names of the republics in the Soviet Union or the names of the historic characters who head up the puppet governments of Russia's satellite countries.

Nor do I have a working knowledge about the ebb and flow of public affairs in neighboring Canada and Mexico. Though I have promised myself a trip to Australia if anyone ever gives me the money, I couldn't draw a dependable map of that continent if my life depended on it.

There is talk going around about adding still another state—Hawaii —but I am still in ignorance about states already in the family. I cannot remember the name of the governor of New Mexico, for example.

The point is there's a limit to how thin a man can spread himself when everybody on earth wants a piece of his attention. And on top of everything else, everybody who wants to be well informed is expected to keep track of the hardware this country has hurled into outer space.

In each instance, moreover, there is a worry attached. It is never enough any more to say, "Ah Berlin. I'll bet the beer there is good." To show you know the score, you must wrinkle your forehead and rattle off the sequence of friction between your side and their side, with an educated guess about the probable outcome and whether the militarists will use big dirty bombs or little clean bullets.

It is too much for me. Hence the yelp for help. I want someone to rescue me from my predicament. I do not really understand why people are cutting up one another in South America, Nyasaland, Cape Town, New Delhi or Old Heidelberg, and, I honestly don't care, because I believe there is nothing I can do in the future or could have done in the past to stop it. People will be people.

When this gets around, I am going to be closed in on by a legion of do-gooders and worrywarts who will scorch me for not knowing what is going on in Bolivia, Cambodia, Ghana, Kuwait, Liberia, Nepal, Tibet and Vietnam. Bless their hot little heads, I do not even know what is going on in Michigan, except that some fellow up there named for a brand of shaving soap my father used to like has the whole place in a lather.

Western 'Summit' Talks

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, temporarily frustrated in his desire for a summit conference, is forcing the Western Allies into a kind of summit meeting of their own.

In the end, by sheer boldness, he may get the meeting he wants.

Khrushchev has made it plain he considers foreign ministers a bunch of errand boys who fiddle around, split hairs and waste time on problems which only the top men can solve anyway.

That's why he first balked at a foreign ministers meeting to discuss the crisis he himself created: his demand the Western Allies get their troops out of West Berlin by May 27.

BY SHEER NECESSITY — because the crises is so major—the West's top men have had to move up front to handle it, leaving their foreign ministers in the shadows.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle have already met to discuss plans, map positions. British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan goes to visit them this week. Then he comes here to see President Eisenhower.

Their foreign staff will be doing a lot of paper work but the top men wi" have to agree on the broad policy.

The fact that Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has been in the shadows is a physical accident. He has been hospitalized with cancer.

Still, in this particular situation, Eisenhower would have had to assume the up-front role since any final decision, which might mean shooting or its avoidance, would have to be his.

Dulles' illness put the whole foreign policy load on Eisenhower. Dulles carried a big part of that load when he was well. His Tuesday news conferences were an instrument for outlining broad American foreign policy.

Dulles could field the detailed questions thrown at him, thus making it easier for the President at his Wednesday news conference. Eisenhower couldn't have the detailed knowledge possessed by Dulles, the specialist.

But the British foreign secretary Selwyn Lloyd, has almost disappeared from view under the commotion stirred up by Khrushchev. He may be handling details for Britain, but Macmillan is doing the talking.

YET THE FOUR Western Allies want a foreign ministers meeting to discuss Berlin and Germany. After saying what he thought of foreign ministers, Khrushchev agreed to their meeting, but grudgingly.

He made it plain he didn't think much good could come of it and in the end the top men would have to get together if there was going to be any solution at all.

If the foreign ministers meet, and most likely they will, and if they stall too long to suit Khrushchev, he can shut them off and come close to forcing a summit meeting by starting to push for a Berlin showdown in a hurry.

News of Other Years

40 YEARS AGO — Services for the first Sunday in Lent were held in churches of the city. At St. Paul's Episcopal Church Bishop Frank Du Moulin of Columbus preached, conducted confirmation and dedicated the chapel room. Following the Lenten service sermon, Richard Haberman sang a solo.

The Rev. Henry Faulconer of Hillsboro conducting a series of special services at First Presbyterian Church closed the meetings at the evening service. At 3 p.m. a service for men and boys was held with Harold Compton in charge of singing.

20 YEARS AGO — Golden Gloves tournament fights moved into the second phase at the Marion Steam Shovel arena. Contestants were James Forsythe, flyweight; Paul Naylor and Howard Richardson, featherweights; Robert Campbell, bantam weight; William Scott, welterweight; William Egnor, middleweight; Dan Mathews, lightweight, and Robert Hartle and Franklin Sifrett, heavyweights.

The Eagles Lodge proposed a program to finance new equipment at City Hospital through state refunds on sales tax coupons. Outlining the plan was John Abel, secretary.

Marion merchants introduced spring merchandise with a "style show" starting at 7 p.m. when at the stroke of the town clock simultaneous lighting of window displays was featured followed by a band concert, parade and a slogan contest with theater tickets as prizes.

10 YEARS AGO — A contract was let for purchase of the necessary equipment for the long-awaited city-county police radio network.

Marking the 25th anniversary of the dedication of the Oakland EUB Church edifice, new chimes and sound system were dedicated in honor of servicemen of World War II affiliated with the church. Veterans attended in uniform. This was part of a week-long commemoration and special music was under supervision of Miss Louise Caldwell.

Mrs. Edward Gregory

Previous to her marriage on Feb. 17, Mrs. Gregory was Miss Ruthella Jean Foos. Details are in the wedding column.

Weddings

In an evening ceremony at Morral on Tuesday, Feb. 17, Miss Ruthella Jean Foos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Foos of near Marion, became the bride of Edward Gregory. He is the son of Mrs. Arline Gregory of near Marion and the late James E. Gregory.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Marvin Crabtree, pastor of the Morral Baptist Church, in his parsonage home.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Lowell Murphy of near Morral and Charles Foos, brother of the bride. Also present for the ceremony were members of the immediate families and Miss Marianna Malo.

The bride chose for her wedding a white lace ballerina length dress and she carried a white Bible topped with red roses and showered with white satin ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Gregory was graduated from Ridgedale High School with the class of 1958 and is employed as a cashier at the Big Bear store. She has been active in 4-H work for the last nine years, serving as an assistant adviser last year. Mr. Gregory, a graduate of Morral High School with the class of 1957, is employed as a shipping clerk at the Probst Supply Co.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann: Recently my wife and I visited an elderly aunt to help celebrate her birthday. While in the kitchen chatting I noticed her dog had jumped from the chair onto the table and was eating the spareribs which were to be served to the guests.

I shouted to my aunt and she calmly replied, "Oh that's nothing. He doesn't have any germs. He's very clean."

She did nothing about removing the ribs the dog had been chewing on, so I took them off the platter and let the dog finish them on the floor. My aunt's only comment was, "My, aren't we fancy!"

I didn't feel like eating much dinner. On the way home my wife tore me to pieces because of my "terrible manners." She said I insulted our hostess by not eating the food she had prepared.

I told her I didn't think I could eat a mouthful of food in that house ever again. Will you please referee this one? We want an unbiased opinion, — FANCY FRANK.

-:-

Dear Fancy: I can't see that you NEED a referee. Since you now know that Auntie thinks nothing of permitting the dog to jump on the table and help himself to whatever is around, simply eat before you go over there and make no apologies. It's not rude; it's prudent.

Out of Context

Dear Ann: We are a group of 15-year-olds who think your advice to "Alone Dad" was lousy. You must be an 80-year-old dried-up witch.

The father wanted your opinion on letting his 15-year-old daughter have her boy friend over when she baby-sat. You said "NO!"

If a girl is really nice, what's wrong with having her boy friend over when no adults are present? You also have said, "Parents cannot watch their children every living minute. The best policeman in the world is self discipline."

How do you account for these two contradictory statements? We will be watching the paper for your explanation — if you can think of one. — THE GROUP.

-:-

Dear Group: Lifting one sentence out of context is an old trick. Read my statement carefully and you'll find the sentences which follow make my position clear.

True — the best policeman in the world is self-discipline. BUT even the best policeman goes off duty now and then.

"Lead us not into temptation" are words worth remembering. Teen-agers ask for trouble when they tempt Fate. I warn repeatedly against parking on lonely roads, sitting in pitch-dark rooms and spending hours in a house when no adults are present.

High standards and good training have been known to lose the battle when pitted against the chemistry of youth. Even steel bars can be bent when subjected to intense heat. Don't forget that humans are creatures of intellect AND emotion, and all too often the latter is the boss.

The girl who says, "I have perfect control; it could never happen to me," is usually mistaken at the top of her voice.

Reasonable Offer

Dear Ann: My cousin had her first baby and she needs a bed. She worked up to the last minute so they must have money saved.

My baby is 16 months old and is still in her baby bed, although we will be buying her a youth bed soon. I offered to sell the baby bed to my cousin for $15. (It cost $40). She said she'd talk to her husband and let me know.

Two days later she phoned to say she didn't want to buy the bed, she wants to BORROW it. She said it would be better for me, too, as I may have more babies. I said nothing doing.

Now they are mad at us and telling everyone how cheap we are. Are we cheap or are they?—XXZ.

-:-

Dear XYZ: Your offer to sell her a $40 bed for $15 was not unreasonable. Forget it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Marion Star, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

To Your Good Health

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Sudden Weight Loss Should Be Checked

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is it dangerous to lose weight without any seeming cause? I am in the real estate business and work long hours but am permitted to take it easy when necessary, which I do.

Dr. Molner

"I play a little tennis with granddaughter. I am 57, and 5 feet 9. Eighteen months ago I weighed 148; now I weigh 130.

"I have had a little nausea once a month or so when I take a laxative, or after eating. My appetite may be off a little, but I sleep well and feel o.k. except a slight loss of energy. I take vitamins nearly all the time. I come from a slim family. Is it normal to lose weight at my age?—L.S."

Unaccountable loss of weight is an important and sometimes an alarming symptom that should be investigated. If we are in good physiological balancer, with a fair intake of food and a fair amount of activity to burn up the calories, we should maintain weight at a fairly constant level.

However, there are certain sneaky ailments that can cause weight loss without any dramatic symptoms. One, and commoner than is often supposed, is diabetes. The other common symptoms—thirst, and frequent urination—may come on so gradually as not to be noticed, or considered unusual. Appetitie is likely to remain good in a mild case of diabetes.

Thyroid disease — over-active thyroid—is another thing that can come on subtly. The patient may be energetic yet not greatly nervous. The pulse will be fast. There may be a mild and barely noticeable enlargement of the thyroid gland itself.

—:—

TUBERCULOSIS, as well as cancer of the lung, may exist without any sign that the patient can detect, although chest X-rays will disclose the condition. Loss of weight, of course, can accompany either of those.

It is also safe in such a case to see whether cancer of the stomach is present — "appetite may be a little off . . . slight loss of energy . . . occasional nausea."

You see that there are a number of things, all of which may have approximately the same outward signs, but require some special medical tests to diagnose—X-ray, urine, or blood, etc.

I have known people 65 or older to lose weight yet have no defect show up under the most careful tests. These persons finally leveled off in weight and are well today. But I don't think this should happen at 57, so I would most certainly investigate this loss of weight as potentially a danger sign of some sort.

—:—

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is something wrong with a child when he wants water every 15 or 20 minutes, or is it just a habit?—D.M.P."

It could very well be habit. It depends on other symptoms and findings. If there is, also, excessive urination, but no sugar present, diabetis insipidus should be considered. (That's a form of diabetes unrelated to the diabetes which is so familiar diabetes mellitus.) No sugar is present in insipidus, but there are thirst and frequency. If sugar is present, of course, true diabetes may be the cause and should be checked at once. However, in a child diabetes mellitis usually results in other symptoms which are usually so clear that there would be no doubt. In this case I doubt that this is the trouble.

"Dear Dr. Molner: On the sides of my hips I have scar-like marks. What do they mean, if anything? I am 15.—H.B."

I'm just a doctor, not a mind-reader. Or hip-reader. Maybe they are 'stretch marks" if you once got too fat too fast. Or maybe they are some other oddity. They don't sound serious, but the best way to ease your mind is to have your doctor diagnose them the next time you are having a checkup.

Are you bothered with ringing in the ears? If so, send for my booklet, "Ear Noises—Their Causes and Cures," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

PTA Activities

A panel of school administrators will be heard at the George Washington PTA meeting Tuesday night at the school in a dicsussion of "What Johnny Is Taught." The group will be led by Cecil Gabler, director of instruction in the public school system here. In line with the general theme for the year, "Rockets to Understanding," the thought for this meeting will be, "Lunar Probe."

State Board Studying New Education Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Board of Education faces a decision today on a state plan for beefing up instruction in math, science and modern languages.

The plan, developed within a pattern outlined by the U.S. Office of Education, was mailed to board members several days ago. Dr. E. E. Holt, state superintendent of public instruction, is recommending its adoption.

The plan, among other things, calls for the hiring of a coordinator and three educational specialists to administer the program of advising local school systems.

—Edison—

Students in Miss Margaret Selander's citizenship class at Edison were to visit Municipal Court and offices in City Hall this morning.

The Latin Club will meet Thursday during homeroom period.

Friday's assembly program will feature the film: "To Enrich Mankind."

Members of the football, basketball and track teams will be guests at the athletic banquet Wednesday, March 18, at 6:30 p.m. Parents have been invited to attend. The banquet is an annual PTA project.

—Baker—

Student representatives from each homeroom have been selected to the eighth grade guidance council at Baker. They are Beth Petrich, John Morgan, Jay Walker, Linda Brown, Greg Howison and Vicki Sue Fogt. As their first project the council members will assist in distribution of registration materials for the eighth grade course selection program.

In intramural tournaments, Room 36 has defeated Room 37 by a score of 17 to 15 for the ninth grade championship. Room 13 won the eighth grade championship by defeating Room 11 with a score of 24 to 13. The seventh grade tournament is now being played. Opening games were won by Rooms 16 and 17.

Ninth grade students saw a movie entitled "Choosing Your Occupation" last week in preparation for Career Day April 1.

—George Washington—

Children in Mrs. Mary Jo Williams' second grade at George Washington are beginning a study of birds. They will study nests, migratory habits and methods of food gathering. The children will make a bird book and try to color each bird in its natural color. Oral and written reports will be given about the topic.

Mrs. Lillian Poling's second graders have been developing original puppet shows for classroom presentation as a part of their language arts. The children have designed puppet characters from socks and old sheets. Puppet plays were written and presented by Marsha Beidler, Tony Deckard, Debbie Isaly, Nancy Ferry, Robert Cyders, Clifford Drown and David Branum.

The children in Miss Rita Van Meter's second grade are making book reports on their individual reading. Reports are completed on a duplicated form. Each child gives the title of the book, the type of story, favorite character, and something interesting or funny that happened in the story.

All of the second grade students took the second part of the New York test of arithmetic meanings last week. It measured each child's improvement in arithmetic since the previous test.

Six boys in the sixth grade were selected to act as hosts at the Science Day. These boys were Tom Grishkat, Steve Thomas, Grant Powell, Ronny Diegle, Mike Mosure and Jeff Robbins.

Kenneth Longacre of 276 Chicago Ave., showed the fifth grades a movie on the Atlas missile Friday. This colored film was released recently for viewing by the United States Army.

The third grades are spending their science periods working on gardening. Samples of soil are being examined and compared. Committees went to different florists to learn how to mix and prepare soil for different leaf cuttings.

Violet leaves were chosen as a leaf for the experiment. Mrs. Fred Norton, whose hobby is African violets, demonstrated the technique of starting a plant from a leaf.

Seed catalogues were ordered by pupils from different rooms. Forced blooms of forsythia and pussy willow make bouquets in the rooms. Charts are being made to show the annual, biennial and perennial plants.

For St. Patrick'a Day, students plan to make a white carnation green by placing it in a jar of water colored green with food coloring.

Many types of gardens are being made. Examples are a mold garden, chemical garden, terrariums, slips of plants, planting of bulbs, etc.

—Pearl St.—

Miss Patricia Gary's fifth grade at Pearl St. is recording a radio program in conjunction with English work. Composition is being emphasized in preparation of the script, and expression in recording the program.

An art display from the Cleveland Art Museum is being exhibited in the main corridor of the building. This work is representative of the Saturday classes of the Cleveland Art Museum.

The PTA has purchased a set of polo mallets and fun balls for use in the school gymnasium and in the physical education classes.

—Silver St.—

Mrs. Maude Church's first grade visited the home of Brad Richardson last week to see his pet rabbit. Brad is a member of the class. After the visit, students drew pictures of the rabbit and wrote chart stories.

—Glenwood—

Mrs. Jean Maloney's fourth graders at Glenwood are planning a trip to the Marion Public Library Wednesday. They saw slides of New York City recently and are making a mural.

The girst graders in Mrs. Louise Lister's room have been working hard on their spelling words. They have a list which all first graders should know. These words are used in chart stories. In subtraction they are working on numbers that have answers to five. By the end of the year they will be working with answers to ten.

Mrs. Katie Watson's third grade has progressed from simple subtraction problems to the more complicated ones involving borrowing. This week they are learning to borrow from the 10 and 100 place numbers.

Most of the rooms are working on something special for spring and Easter. Mrs. Betty Leffler's special class students are going to make papier mache rabbits. Papier mache is one of the many mediums used by boys and girls to express themselves in art.

—N. Main St.—

Mrs. Beulah Johnson's second grade at N. Main St. is studying about light houses. Students are reading stories about them and completing drawings of a light house. They are preparing a table display showing the light house on an island with the surrounding boats, bell buoys and ocean. As a related science unit they plan to study the formation of fog. They also are memorizing the poem, "Light House."

Miss Virginia O'Dowd's second grade has been observing the barometer. The class predicted the bad weather we had on Friday by observing that the barometer was falling.

After viewing an art exhibit from the Cleveland Art Museum, the students in Miss Grace Epler's sixth grade were encourtaged to experiment with a new art technique involving the transfer of a wax outline from waxed paper to drawing paper. The pictures were then water colored.

—Olney Ave.—

Susan Shenefield, a pupil in Mrs. Marlene Mahler's first grade at Olney Ave. brought a white mouse to school last week. The children drew pictures and composed their own stories about "The Mouse Who Came to School."

Mrs. Emily Wolf's third grade recently received a letter from a third grade in Sierra Vista, Ariz. Included in the letter was a personal note from a member of the class. The rest of the class had contributed geographic things of interest centered around their community.

Mrs. Wolf's class has answered the letter. In addition to a personal note, students are reporting about industries in our community. A picture of the Harding Memorial will also be included.

Olney Ave. pupils and teachers have been very busy preparing their exhibit for "Science Day." The general theme was "Science Around the Year."

Exhibits portraying weather were made by the following grades: Grade 1, seasons and the senses; Grade 2, the story of a drop of water; Grade 3, seasons and clouds; Grade 4, weather around the world; Grade 5, weather instruments, and Grade 6, space, rockets and weather.

Robert Everly of Miss Ruth Dell Auman's sixth grade brought an experiment showing direct and alternate electric currents to school last week. He demonstrated the experiment to the class.

The fourth grades viewed the film "Nature's Children" last week. This was in conjunction with their reading unit, "The Great Outdoors."

—Oak St.—

Mrs. Imo Hentze's second grade at Oak St. has used the tape recorder to record reading lessons. The students listened to the recordings to learn how to improve expression and enunciation.

Mrs. Helen Liebert's sixth grade has been studying magnetism. Members of the class have constructed models, performed experiments which were demonstrated to the class, made individual booklets, and given reports on the principles of magnetism.

Miss Judy Vance's first grade is studying subtraction problems. Each child is making cards showing problems with pictures and numbers.

They also have been experimenting with papier mache. Miss Vance made a large egg in the form of Humpty Dumpty. The children are now making and painting eggs.

—Oakland—

All pupils at Oakland viewed the science display which was exhibited in the school library last week. The theme of the display is "Animals, Then and Now." It depicts the evolution from the prehistoric era to man. Dinosaurs, animals of the sea, shore and farm are among items in the display.

Mrs. Nancy Colegrove's third grade is studying "How We Grow" in health. Students are bringing old photographs of themselves and comparing them with how they look now.

Charles Faust's sixth grade arithmetic class is working with division and fractions. Students also are learning to divide and multiply fractions.

—Prospect—

The Rev. Charles Harrison, Protestant chaplain at the Boys Industrial School in Lancaster, will be the speaker for the Prospect PTA athletic banquet Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

The Band Parents will meet Thursday at 8 p.m.

Eighth graders will present an assembly Friday for students in the upper six classes.

Several FHA girls will go to Elm Valley Friday to be interviewed as contestants for the state future homemaker degree.

—New Bloomington—

Students in the German I class at New Bloomington will attend a German concert tonight at Heidelerg College. They will be accompanied by Mrs. O. F. Merz, instructor, and her husband.

The Jolly Bell Ringers will present Friday's assembly program. Student admission will be 15 cents.

Juniors are busily at work on the class play, "It's a Great Life," which will be presented March 31 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Tickets may be purchased from any class member. The price is 60 cents for adults and 30 cents for students.

Reservations for next Tuesday's athletic banquet must be made by Friday. The speaker will be Gordon Larson, Harding football coach. The PTA is in chargé of arrangements. Tickets are $1.50.

Students named to the honor roll for the six weeks' period just ended are: Don Bumgarner, senior; Earnest Breece, Robert Gracely and Jean LeMay, juniors; Gladys Parsons, sophomore, and Sharon Snyder, freshman.

—Green Camp—

Newly elected officers will be installed when the Green Camp FFA meets Tuesday. An FFA queen and her court also will be selected.

Arlan Hedges placed first in the county in the vocational agriculture test given last week at the YMCA. Other students taking the county co-op examination were Gary Reynolds and Dick Johnson.

—Waldo—

Classes at Waldo will dismiss Thursday at 2:30 p.m. due to a faculty meeting.

A special assembly during first period Friday will feature Jimmy Davis, a musician who plays 15 instruments.

Vonetta Newell has been selected to attend Girls' State. Her alternate will be Sharon Cramer.

—Ridgedale—

Sophomores will select class rings Wednesday at Ridgedale and the FHA will meet the same day.

—Claridon—

"Think Twice—You Only Live Once," is the slogan for a safety campaign being sponsored by FHA girls in home economics at Claridon this month. Girls will visit homes in the community and check safety features.

The FHA banquet will be held Thursday, March 19, at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Elementary and senior high school bands will join in presenting a concert Thursday night. The cadet and junior bands will perform. Highlighting the program will be the high school band playing various numbers. A trumpet trio and other sections of the instrumental group will be featured.

Don Fry was the school winner in competition for the spelling championship. The other finalists were Gary Tyo, eighth grade, and Bill White, seventh grade.

Students from the speech class and the FHA will present the program at the United Grange meeting Tuesday night.

Thirteen music students received superior ratings in district solo and ensemble competition recently at Bucyrus. They will compete April 11 at Bowling Green State University in state finals.

The groups were: Sue Earl, Pat Burton, Karen Neff and Shirley Mitchell, clarinet quartet; Glen Beers, Bill Born and Gary Fairchild, trumpet trio; JoAnn Crum, Jerri Oborn, Carol Laucher and Joan Haley, saxophone quartet; Marion King, clarinet solo, and Virginia Adams, soprano solo.

—Martel—

The Martel alumni banquet will be held Saturday at 7 p.m. in the school auditorium.

—LaRue—

Newly elected FFA officers at LaRue are Merrill Williams, president; Frank Rayburn, vice president; Bill Dunkin, secretary; Jack Williams, treasurer; Steve Butler, reporter; Gary Christian, student adviser, and Richard Fry, sentinel.

Taking the vocational agriculture co-op test Wednesday at the YMCA were Roy Higgenbotham, Ronald Christian and Steve Butler, all FFA members.

Adult night classes will be held tonight and Tuesday at 8 in the home economics room. Mrs. Jane Bills' dressmaking class will meet tonight and the homemaking skill class Tuesday.

Representatives from two ring companies were scheduled to meet with sophomores at the school today.

—Caledonia—

Yearbooks are on sale at Caledonia with a $1.25 deposit required now. The balance may be paid when the books arrive next fall. Seniors are handling the sales campaign.

Sophomores will sponsor a dance Friday, March 20, in the new gymnasium. Music will be provided by Billie Johnston's Orchestra from Green Camp.

The first intramural basketball game will be played next Monday at 6 p.m.

—Pleasant—

Kindergarten students at Pleasant have been playing games which encourage visual discrimination. They also are learning to count from 1 through 10.

Brownie and Girl Scout troops at the school will meet in a joint meeting Thursday at 3:30 p.m. in the old gymnasium.

A guest speaker will be featured when the adult farmers meet next Monday at 8 p.m. in the school shop.

The committee working to earn funds for installation of lights on the baseball field already has raised $3,000 in donations or pledges. Since several thousand more dollars are needed, a house-to-house solicitation will be staged Saturday from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. The lights have been ordered and will be installed soon.

Teachers and board members, along with their husbands and wives, will hold a party Tuesday at 6 p.m.

A meeting of the committee for baseball for boys will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the school.

Elementary Supervisor Familiar Figure to Pupils

Miss Gregg Often Visits Classrooms in Work With Teachers

This is the third in a series concerning the duties of administrative staff members of the Marion public school system.

By JUNE ROSEBERRY
Marion Star Education Editor

Children think of Miss Philomen Gregg as a traveling principal and teacher because she is seen so frequently in their classrooms and school buildings.

Her title is elementary supervisor, but along with supervising the work of elementary teachers and coordinating the curriculum, she utilizes her position to "help children learn" and gain many young friends by spending a lot of time in the classroom.

Her warm smile and affable ways have won her the favor of youngsters throughout the school system, a valuable asset in her job.

When she visits a classroom, she often enters into the activity. If there is a discussion in progress, she will enrich it with incidents drawn from her own broad experiences in a lifetime of teaching. She may suggest a reading volume to supplement a particular study.

—:—

SHE RECALLS many humorous occurrences during her school visits. "One time I raised my hand to answer a question in a first grade reading class and the children appeared quite amused. After I left, one of the youngsters asked the teacher if I were just learning to read," she explained jovially.

Often elementary teachers are seen leaving the School Administration Building after 5 p.m. The occasion usually is a grade level meeting conducted by Miss Gregg.

Teachers of fourth grades throughout the city, for example, get together and compare notes on effective teaching materials and share ideas for program enrichment such as film strips and free literature.

Each instructor attends two or three such grade level meetings a year. Now that most of the sessions are completed, work will begin on revising the elementary science guide developed in 1956, Miss Gregg pointed out.

Like Cecil Gabler, assistant to the superintendent, she conducts numerous meetings. One outgrowth of the annual teachers' workshop—a study of the grading and report card system—will fall jointly to Miss Gregg and Mr. Gabler.

The attractive educator is busily at work right now planning elementary classroom visitations which students in the Future Teachers of America Club at Harding will make this week.

And nearly every day she can be seen with her arms loaded either with sketches or books, headed in the direction of some school building. If asked what she were about to do, she'd be sure to reply, "I'm going to set up an exhibit."

Already this year there have been four book displays. Ten days ago she took down a colorful array of outstanding elementary art work from another city's school system.

Miss Gregg works closely with Mr. Gabler and his teacher committees on new book adoptions and once the new books are put in use at the elementary level, she arranges visits of consultants from the publishing company. These persons offer advice to classroom teachers in getting best use of the new volumes.

As co-director of the summer kindergarten program with Mr. Gabler, she interprets the sessions and their purpose to parents of tots about to enter first grade.

Once the youngster has graduated from kindergarten and is a full-fledged first grader, she organizes meetings with mothers at each building to explain the job public schools are attempting to do and the vital role parents can play in making the learning process most effective.

This dedicated woman feels that the job of an educator goes beyond the working day. For this reason, she frequently appears as a speaker on a PTA program or at a Child Conservation League meeting.

And regardless of the day or the hour, children are never removed from her mind. She finds them "fascinating" and works to build their abilities and personalities to the fullest.

Perhaps all of the 4,400 youngsters in Marion's elementary schools do not know Miss Gregg by name, but they recognize her beaming face whether on the street or in a crowded elevator. And greetings never fail to be exchanged.

AT HOME IN THE CLASSROOM. Miss Philomen Gregg, elementary supervisor of Marion public schools, is right at home in the elementary classroom, especially when she's chatting with youngsters. Here she explores the wonders of a pleasure reading volume with a student audience in Mrs. Jean Maloney's fourth grade at Glenwood. The book augments a study in which class members are currently engaged. Pictured in the foreground with Miss Gregg are: Carolyn Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson of 370 Latourette St., and Kenneth Kannaird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kannaird of 130 Fics Ave. Miss Gregg coordinates the elementary program and supervises the work of classroom teachers. Her duties in the school system are many, but she always finds time to devote individual attention to her many young friends.

Meetings on PTA Census of Children Will Begin Today

The first of eight meetings of PTA workers throughout the city who will conduct a house-to-house census of children was held today at Oak St. School.

Cooperating with city school officials in carrying out the enumeration are the PTA groups from each school and the Marion City Council PTA, headed by Mrs. Don Hunter.

The two-month canvass will be held in April and May to ascertain the number of children between the ages of 1 day and 18 years. It is being coordinated by Joseph Whisler, director of pupil personnel.

Mr. Whisler explained today that the results of the enumeration will be used to determine the needs of the city school system in the future.

Other meetings scheduled this month at these buildings, and the dates, are: Pearl St., Tuesday; Silver St., Wednesday; N. Main St., Thursday; Olney Ave., March 17; Mark St., March 18; Glenwood, March 19, and Oakland, March 20.

Meetings at Vernon and George Washington will be scheduled later.

Future Teachers Will Visit Classes

Sixty members of the Harding High School Future Teachers of America will visit public school elementary buildings Thursday morning in an observation program.

Each participating student will have the opportunity to visit one of the first three grades during the first half of the morning, and one of the second three grades in the second half.

The visitation is being coordinated by Miss Philomen Gregg, elementary supervisor, to acquaint the prospective teachers with classroom procedures and instruction.

Members of the club have undergone an orientation program to help them better understand the classroom situation which they will see Thursday.

Jackson Local School Play Set March 12, 13

The Jackson Local School Club at Essex is sponsoring a local talent play, "Two Days to Marry," to be presented on March 12 and 13 at 8 p.m. at the school.

Members of the cast include Ernie Wasserbeck, Mrs. Clarence Gulliford, Mrs. Charlene Converse, George Kersey, Mrs. Rozella Anderson, Lanny Littell and Gaylord Miller. Directing the play will be Ernest Allen.

Proceeds from presentation of the three-act comedy will be used for the benefit of the Jackson School. Tickets are available from members of the cast and from Ernest Schrote, Mrs. Okland Wygal and Mrs. Donald Oberdier.

Service Guild Members Will Talk About Drama

Nineteen Junior Service Guild members will visit city and county elementary schools Tuesday to tell children about the musical drama, "Rumpelstiltskin," which will be presented Saturday morning at the Palace Theater.

The same group will return to the buildings Friday noon to sell tickets for the 11 a.m. entertainment feature. Admission price is 25 cents for students.

Attending the play as guests of the Guild will be youngsters from the Marion County Children's Home, students in the sight saving and crippled children's classes and other special classes of of Marion public schools.

A cast of 19 students from Bowling Green State University will present the drama in cooperation with the Bowling Green Workshop Players.

Career Days Planned At Junior High Schools

Dates have been set for the three junior high school career days, school officials reported today.

They will be held at Taft March 31, Baker April 1, and Edison, April 2.

Ninth grade students already are beginning their study of vocations in preparation for the occasions.

Youth, 16, Fined $25

A 16-year-old Marion boy was fined $25 and costs in Juvenile Court Saturday on charges of intoxication and giving false information to arresting officers. Judge Edward J. Ruzzo suspended 10 days of detention on condition of future good behavior. The youth was given 60 days in which to pay the fine.

Coming PTA Activities

The Ridgedale Freshman Chorus will present the program when the Morral Boosters Club meets Thursday night. Also slated is the election of officers.

—:—

Harry L. Alexander, assistant superintendent of Marion County Schools, will show slides of his recent trip to Greece and the Brussels World's Fair during the Waldo PTA meeting Thursday at 8 p.m.

—:—

Family night and open house will be observed when the LaRue PTA meets tonight. Student hobbies will be displayed in each elementary room. Entertainment for pre-school youngsters will be provided in the multi-purpose room by home economics students under the direction of Mrs. Jane Bills. Each family should bring sandwiches for refreshments.

—:—

The Rev. James Eltzroth, pastor of Meeker Methodist Church, will speak on an Easter theme Thursday at 8 p.m. during the Meeker PTA meeting. Music will be presented by eighth grade girls.

—:—

Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts will be in charge of the program when the Glenwood PTA meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

—:—

Awards from the recent art show will be made when the Green Camp PTA meets tonight at 8. A guest speaker will be heard. The school's annual Fun Night, sponsored by the PTA, will take place Friday.

Serving for the supper will begin at 5:30 p.m. Several concessions will provide entertainment during the evening. A round and square dance will be open to the public with a 50 cent admission. Billie Johnston's Orchestra from Green Camp will provide music.

—:—

A fashion show will be the highlight of the program when the Silver St. PTA meets Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

New Kiwanis Club To Hear Birnbaum

Max Birnbaum will be guest speaker for the first program of the new Town and Country Kiwanis Club Tuesday night.

His message will be brought to the group, meeting at the Highway Hotel at 6, by the Marion Kiwanis Club which sponsored the new club. It is standard procedure for the sponsoring club to arrange the first program for a new club.

Acting president for this first meeting will be Smith Witter, president of the Marion Kiwanis Club. James Smoot is president of the new club, which was organized March 3.

Mr. Birnbaum, a native of Poland, has been a Kiwanian for many years. He will talk on his visit to Poland last August.

Radnor PTA To Hear Brown Talk on Russia

RADNOR — Robert S. Brown, superintendent of Marion City Schools, will be the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Radnor PTA Thursday night.

He will give a talk and show slides illustrating his 32-day tour of Russia last summer.

Members of the program committee announced that the meeting is open to the public and that students particularly are invited to attend.

The program committee is composed of: Mrs. John Roberts, chairman; Robert Russell, president of the PTA; Mrs. David Steed, publicity chairman; Mrs. Blanche Havercamp; Mrs. B. Gerwig; the Rev. Paul Williams; Donald Hedges and Jared Monson.

Shooting in Columbus Leaves 2 Dead, 1 Hurt

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — One person was killed, another critically wounded and a third took his own life when an all-night party erupted into a shooting spree here early Sunday.

Dr. Carl E. Tetrick, deputy coroner, said Mrs. Louise Saddler, 23, was fatally shot by her boy friend, Bernard Jackson, 31, who then police said, took his own life. Police said Jackson also shot Earl Clark, 39, who was reported in critical condition at Grant Hospital. All are from Columbus.

Motor Scooter and Quail Bills Top Week's Assembly Agenda

Proposal Up For Vote Sets Age Limit 16

Licensing Measure Faces House Action; Hunters Want Quail

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's Legislature starts another week of work with two controversial proposals up for early decision in the House.

Representatives vote tonight on repeal of motor scooter licenses for 14 and 15-year-olds.

Tomorrow, they vote on an oft-defeated measure to permit quail hunting in Ohio.

Both of Top Interest

Both bills have attracted more witnesses and spectators to House committee hearings than any other pending proposals this session—with the possible exception of a measure to outlaw capital punishment.

The scooter bill, a combination of eight measures offered in the House, would cancel licenses held by those under 16 upon enactment. An exception is provided for so called hardship cases.

Quail-hunting has been an issue in the Legislature ever since "Bob White" was put on the protected songbird list. Ten years ago the lawmakers declared quail a game bird for propagation purposes only.

On State-Controlled Land

Sportsmen now want the Legislature to authorize quail hunting on lands owned or controlled by the state.

The measure to substitute life imprisonment for the death penalty in first degree murder cases receives a third hearing in the House Judiciary Committee Wednesday. Opponents are scheduled to testify.

House Speaker James A. Lantz (D-Fairfield) said at least a half dozen measures would be placed on the House calendar for a vote on the floor during the week.

Senators also expect to act on a number of measures now that the deadline for introduction of bills is past. New proposals now can be offered only if members in either house agree to suspension of rules. When the deadline fell Thursday, a record 1,589 bills were in the legislative hopper, 250 more than the 1957 high.

Industrial Supervisors Institute Starts Thursday

Six Speakers Will Bring Advice on Developing Management Team

The second annual Marion Industrial Supervisors Institute will begin a three-day program in the lunchroom of Harding High School at 4:30 p.m. Thursday.

Theme of this year's program will be "Development of the Management Team." Afternoon and evening sessions will be highlighted with talks by well known experts in various lines of endeavor.

—:—

SPONSORED jointly by the Chamber of Commerce, the Marion Industrial Club, the Manufacturers Council and the Marion Board of Education, the institute will end Saturday night with presentation of certificates and a banquet beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Guest speaker for the banquet will be Paul Brees, professor and head of the speech department at Wittenberg College since 1922. He also is director of forensics and of the speech clinic.

Registration for the institute will begin in the high school lunchroom at 4 p.m. Thursday and at 4:30 p.m., George Schwab, president of the Industrial Club, will open the program.

Speakers and others attending will be welcomed by Robert S. Brown, superintendent of the city schools.

Theodore O. Jenney of Columbus, formerly plant training supervisor for the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., will be the speaker for the first session and will talk on "The Art of Listening" as applied to supervision.

A native of New Bedford, Mass., he was in the telephone business continuously from 1920 until last July when he retired. He presently is assisting in program development with the Foreman's Club of Columbus.

—:—

THE SECOND session Thursday, beginning at 7:30 p.m., will feature as the speaker George Frack of Findlay, district supervisor of distributive education in Ohio with the state department of education.

He will discuss the use of creative thinking in industry and will direct a demonstration in "brainstorming."

Mr. Frack has studied at Pennsylvania State University, the University of Pittsburgh, Ohio State University, Muskingum College and the bureau of research for retail training. He also has conducted institutes in management, supervision and selling for a number of types of businesses.

The first session Friday will begin at 4 p.m. and will have as the speaker Robert E. Kline of Dayton, director of factory education and training for the National Cash Register Co.

He will discuss "Psychological Testing, Job Placement and Their Relationship to Employe Morale."

Mr. Kline has spent many years in industrial education and foremanship training and is past president of the Dayton Foreman's Club.

He also is president of the Dayton Board of Education and is active in a number of civic and professional organizations.

—:—

IN THE SECOND session Friday, starting at 7:30 p.m., the speaker will be Paul G. Craig, associate professor of economics at OSU. He will talk on the topic, "The Supervisor and Business Conditions for 1959."

Mr. Craig holds B.A., M.A. and Ph.D. degrees and is research economist in the Bureau of Business Research at OSU.

He is the author of numerous articles and books dealing with economics and annually writes "Business Review" for "Encyclopedia Britannica." He also has contributed to UNESCO journals and is a consultant to both business firms and labor unions. He is a member of various professional organizations.

At 1 p.m. Saturday, Irwin Gerard, federal mediator and conciliator, of Dayton will be the speaker. He will discuss four topics: "Labor History," "Court Cases," "Functions of Foreman and Steward — for Grievance Prevention," and "Typical Case Studies for Discussion."

Mr. Gerard holds a bachelor of science degree from the College of the City of New York and a master of arts degree from Columbia University.

He began his career with the U.S. Department of Labor in 1941, served with the Army and Air Corps during World War II after which he was in personnel work in private industry. He served also as an instructor in economics at CCNY and the University of Toledo until his appointment as federal mediator in June 1951.

—:—

THE FINAL seminar session will begin at 3 p.m. Saturday with John N. Holscher, director of personnel and public relations for the Ohio Company, an investment firm in Columbus, as the speaker.

Mr. Holscher will talk on "Human Engineering," the practical approach to everyday supervisory problems.

He is a graduate of Ohio State University where he did undergraduate work in business administration and graduate work in industrial psychology. He has 10 years experience in the field of personnel and industrial relations. He also has served on the faculty of finance seminars at the University of Michigan and Marquette University.

Presentation of the certificates will be made at the Saturday night banquet by Hugh E. Webster, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Edwin L. Mitchell, first vice president of the C. of C. will be the honored guest.

Entertainment for the banquet will be provided by Marylin Brammer, John Street and Bill Dixon, all students at Harding High School.

Auto Overturns in Accident At Depot, No One Badly Hurt

(Picture on Page 1)

Two Marion men escaped with only minor injuries when the car in which they were riding crashed through the Marion Engineer Depot fence on Rt. 30-S and flipped end over end several times before coming to rest on the government property Saturday afternoon.

Investigating patrolmen said the eastbound auto driven by Herschel Davis, 47, of 1127 Glenwood Dr. landed on its wheels, facing the highway. The estimated that the vehicle traveled 180 feet after impact with the fence.

2 Taken to Hospital

Davis sustained shoulder injuries, bruises of the forehead and body. A passenger, Donald Johnson, 25, of 134 E. Church St., suffered lacerations of the scalp, bruised chest and left side.

Patrolmen said the two were taken to Marion General Hospital in a Depot ambulance. They were treated and released. Two other passengers in the Davis vehicle escaped without any injuries.

The mishap occurred about two and one-half miles east of Marion at 2:40 p.m. Officers said the Davis car swerved out of control when the driver applied the brakes as an auto in front of his slowed to make a left turn.

According to the report, the car was demolished. A total of 130 feet of fence and 10 steel posts were damaged. The accident still is under investigation, patrolmen said. Davis was charged with reckless operation.

Kenton Man Held

A Kenton man was jailed Saturday night on a charge of driving under the influence of alcohol after a sideswipe accident on Rt. 30-S 12 miles west of Marion at 7:30 p.m.

Officers said Kenneth O. Lhaman Sr., 54, of Kenton, was held after his westbound auto sideswiped an eastbound car driven by Robert L. Wolford, 29, of Lima.

Patrolmen said that Lhaman failed to stop at the accident scene and that Wolford turned around and gave pursuit, succeeding in stopping him.

Only minor damage was done to the vehicles.

A driver trainee was behind the wheel of an auto which went out of control at the intersection of County Roads 174 and 26 six miles northeast of Marion Saturday at 1:50 p.m.

Investigating officers said the northbound vehicle driven by Tamara Lou Agnew, 17, of 117 E. Church St. crashed through a farm fence owned by Albert Rhoades of near Marion.

The mishap occurred when the auto started for a ditch at the intersection. A licensed passenger grabbed the wheel, but was unable to avert the smashup, officers said. The car was considerably damaged.

Marion Man Injured

One person was injured in six weekend traffic accidents investigated by Marion police.

William J. Stambaugh, 62, of 148 Fies Ave., suffered chest injuries when his car struck a parked car in the 700 block of W. Center St. at 9:06 p.m. Saturday. He was taken to Marion General Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

He was driving west on W. Center St. and his car struck the rear of the parked car owned by Everett W. Carroll of 131 Latourette St., police said.

Cars driven by Willie R. Smith, 27, of 244 N. Main St. and Cecil Treherne, 46, of 450 W. Center St. collided at an alley intersection at the rear of 202 N. Main St. at 12:15 p.m. Saturday.

A city parking meter was damaged when a car driven by Jack T. Seitter, 22, of 224 N. Main St., backed into it at 3:29 a.m. Sunday.

He told police that he was attempting to get out of the parking space located on N. Main St. just north of Center St.

Four vehicles and a billboard sign were damaged in an accident in the Union Depot driveway at 1:40 a.m. Sunday.

A car driven by Leo L. Houk, 41, of Morral, smashed through the billboard, traveled on west across the depot drive after striking a car and a truck and then struck a third car parked on the west side of the drive and pushed it out onto the C. & O. railroad tracks. Police arrested Houk on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The car pushed out on the tracks was owned by George M. Smith of near Mount Gilead. The other car was owned by W. D. Young of near Marion and the truck by the Erie railroad.

The billboard was owned by Eckert Adv. Co.

One of the other accidents was a hit-skip. A car owned by James Cross of 614 Davids St. and parked in front of his residence was struck by another unidentified vehicle about 12:10 a.m. Sunday.

The only other accident in the city caused less than $100 total damage, police estimated.

Pan-American Events Proclaimed by Mayor

A proclamation setting aside Tuesday, April 14 as Pan American Day and the period from April 12 to 18 as Pan American Week in Marion was issued today by Mayor Wendell L. Strong.

The observance is to mark the 69th anniversary of the founding of the Pan American Union for inter-American cooperation which now is the general secretariat of the Organization of American States. The organization is to further the cause of solidarity of purpose and defense of the peoples of the Western Hemisphere.

All Marion citizens were urged by the mayor to join in the observance.

Mundt Seeks Tightening of Union Control

Veteran Legislator Attacks Loopholes in Present Proposals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-SD) said today that a pending labor control bill "leaves many gaping loopholes for abuse by conniving and corrupt union officials."

He referred to a bill sponsored by Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam. J. Ervin (D-NC), now before the Senate Labor Committee.

Mundt, a member of the Senate Labor-Management Committee, urged a labor subcommittee to accept two provisions he has drafted for tightening up controls over strikes and secret elections of union officers.

Although the subcommittee already has approved the Kennedy-Ervin bill, it reopened its hearings last week for testimony from Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), Labor Management Committee chairman and author of another bill. Mundt and Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) demanded that they also be heard.

In a prepared statement, Mundt said some sections of the Kennedy-Ervin bill are "vulnerable to manipulation and connivance by powerful union bosses or by those who are corrupt."

Dulles Leaves Hospital First Time Sunday

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles spent a pleasant weekend, leaving his hospital suite twice for rides through a nearby park. He also visited his home briefly and later discussed the Berlin situation with two aides.

The first trip Saturday afternoon lasted about 30 minutes. In bright sunshine, he rode through Rock Creek Park with Mrs. Dulles. Aides reported he thoroughly enjoyed the outing, his first since he entered Walter Reed Army Hospital Feb. 10 for a hernia operation.

The ride was made a few hours after he resumed X-ray treatments for cancer. The treatments had been suspended since he received an injection of radioactive gold last Tuesday.

Sunday Dulles and his wife posed briefly for photographers before entering their limousine for another afternoon drive. The secretary was smiling but somewhat thinner than before he entered the hospital. He told newsmen he feels "pretty good."

Ollenhauer Talks With Khrushchev

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany's Socialist chief, Erich Ollenhauer, met today with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, then declared he thought the Soviets would make every effort to solve the Berlin crisis without war.

Ollenhauer met for two hours with Khrushchev at the latter's invitation. Then the Socialist chieftain held a news conference.

Ollenhauer said he came away optimistic about the prospects of an East-West settlement after the meeting in the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin.

"I have the impression that on the Russian side all efforts will be made to solve the problem peacefully and to avoid a conflict," Ollenhauer told the news conference in West Berlin.

On the other side of the political fence, Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen of Illinois said he is confident Eisenhower knows what he is doing.

"The President is not only alert to everything that is going on the military field but so is the defense establishment," Dirksen said in an interview. "I am confident of the adequacy of our forces under every circumstance."

Johnson and Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, prodded the administration to bolster military defenses and to take the initiative in foreign policy actions.

Police Reports

John Rayner of 308 Latourette St. reported Saturday that a tire and wheel was stolen from his car sometime during the last two weeks. He valued them at $15.

Officers Check Fresh Report Sprenz Sighted

CLEVELAND (AP)—A man who may have been Frank Sprenz, one of the nation's 10 most wanted criminals, was spotted at 5 a. m. today in a gas station here. A 1954 Buick, stolen in Youngstown at 2:30 a. m., was abandoned 150 feet from the station.

The car is being checked for fingerprints.

Richard Smart, 33, gas station attendant, said a man closely fitting Sprenz' description drove in and bought a dollar's worth of gasoline. He drove off in the car, which was later found nearby.

"It looked very much like Sprenz but I can't say it definitely was him," said Smart. He said the suspect wore a dark, high-necked sweater.

Sprenz, 29-year-old elusive Akron fugitive, has left a trail of stolen and abandoned cars in Ohio and Pennsylvania since he robbed a Hamilton, Ohio, bank of almost $26,000 last Monday and escaped in a stolen airplane.

The FBI said the stolen car report was "just another tip that could be but maybe is not Sprenz."

The stolen car belonged to Frank G. Turkovic of McDonald, Ohio.

Probers Want Data on Bid To Bribe Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind) said today he is sure chief counsel Robert F. Kennedy will be required to give the Senate Labor-Management Committee all the details of reported political bribe efforts.

Capehart, a member of the committee, referred to Kennedy's statement that he had received offers of political support for his brother if he would lay off witnesses summoned to testify.

Kennedy's brother, Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass), is regarded as a potential candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination next year.

At a news conference in Milwaukee last Friday, counsel Kennedy said the offers of political help came from representatives of both labor and management. No money was involved, he said.

Kennedy said he had paid no attention to the offers and had not reported them to Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), the committee chairman. He said he had discussed them with his brother, a member of the committee.

A closed-door meeting of the committee is to be held Tuesday.

Hunt for Missing Girl, 9, Continues

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP) — The search for a missing nine-year-old Campfire Girl went into its fourth day today with hardly a trace to go on and a vow by a policeman inspector that "we'll keep searching for her until we find out, one way or the other."

Police checked every phone call — there have been hundreds — offering a lead to the disappearance of Candice Elaine Rogers. The little blue-eyed, girl was last seen Friday after school when she set out to sell candy mints to raise money for her Campfire troop.

"We've checked everything, nothing tangible. It doesn't seem possible the child could have wandered to the river area by herself, especially toward evening," said Inspector Robert B. Piper.

The inspector referred to an area along the Spokane River where six boxes of mints were found.

District Assembly Slated For Jehovah's Witnesses

Announcement of an assembly for Jehovah's Witnesses, first for the new circuit taking in the area of Mount Vernon, Marion, Sandusky and Lorain, next month was made at a meeting of the local congregation Sunday by the presiding minister, Ray H. Smith. The event set for April 3-5 in Mansfield will draw delegates from 18 congregations in 11 counties.

Purpose of the meeting is to give the members advanced instruction in Bible teaching methods and because "each one of Jehovah's Witnesses must be a teacher" Mr. Smith emphasized the importance of knowing and using the Bible as "the only source of good news in a world of bad news." The sessions will be held in Johnnny Appleseed Junior High School auditorium in Mansfield and plans are being made to provide "a non-profit cafeteria in order that entire families may conveniently attend morning, afternoon and evening meetings." Regrouping of Ohio congregations into new circuits has been necessary "due to the increase of the number of Jehovah's Witnesses engaged in house-to-house teaching of the 'good news'," Mr. Smith said.

Sen. Proxmire Reopens Fight With Johnson

Demands Full Voice In Setting Up Party Programs, Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis) hit again today at the Democratic Senate leadership of Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex), saying it short-circuited important roles of the Senate by "settling issues off the floor."

Proxmire hammered away further on his theme that Democratic senators should have more of a role in determining the party's programs and policies.

"It is not enough for us to grope instinctively along even though we follow a man of great and proven political genius. We must know and we must insist that the American people know to whom we are responsible and where we are going," he said in a prepared Senate speech.

Two weeks ago Proxmire delivered a Senate speech criticizing "the decision of our leadership not to call caucuses in recent years of all Democrats for the purpose of determining a legislative program."

Johnson was in Texas, reportedly recovering from influenza, at the time of Proxmire's first speech. Proxmire notified Johnson he planned to make his second speech on the matter today and suggested Johnson be present.

2 Places Entered, 3 Other Attempted Burglaries Foiled

Break-ins and attempted break-ins of five downtown business places were under investigation today by Marion police.

The series was discovered at 4:27 a.m. by Patrolman Gayle Rollison when he found a door at the rear of the old Marion Theater standing open.

He determined that it had been pried open and that a second floor office door also had been forced open and the office ransacked but nothing was reported stolen.

Checking further, he and other police found the side door of the General Telephone Co. accounting and storage office at 127 N. Prospect St. standing open and discovered an electric clock lying on the floor inside the office. Nothing else was reported disturbed in this office.

Attempted break-ins also were found at other stores in the same general vicinity. At Carroll's Jewelers at 172 W. Center St. (next to the theater), an attempt had been made to force open the rear door; at Ash Milliners at 182 W. Center St., the rear door showed signs of an attempted forced entry, and the screen door was broken out and a panel on the inner door at the Palace Gift Shop at 178 W. Center St. was damaged, police said.

Traffic Cases

Eleven traffic cases were disposed of in Marion Municipal Court Friday. Charges, drivers and penalties were as follows:

Speeding: Frank F. Gelsimino, 40, of Euclid, forfeited $50 bond; Herbert Mossberger, 55, of Columbus, $15 and costs.

Failure to have assured clear distance ahead: John C. Wright, 21, of 136 E. Fairground St., $25 and costs; Charles H. Mounts, 32, of Upper Sandusky, $15 and costs; Gilbert McClung, 69, of near Marion, $15 and costs (suspended); Jack Wolier, 33, of 18 Sara Ave., $15 and costs (suspended).

Illegal Parking: Foster F. Corfman, 55, of Bucyrus, $15 and costs (suspended); Harry R. Myers, 33, of 140 Chicago Ave., $15 and costs.

Miscellaneous: Janus C. McGuire, 20, of near Harpster, $15 and costs, driving left of center; Charles W. Harris, of 313 Windsor St., $15 and costs, failure to yield the right of way; Torrence L. Ward, 21, of Verdunville, W. Va., $15 and costs, insufficient muffler.

Two Men Fined Here On Charges of Assault

Two men were fined a total of $40 on separate charges of assault and battery Friday in Marion Municipal Court.

Charles R. Ledings, 29, of 332 Waterloo St. was fined $15 and costs on a charge filed against him by Donald Schweinfurth.

Elmond Haney, 26, of 131 Latourette St. was given a suspended fine of $25 and costs on a charge filed against him by his wife, Gladys.

DeValera Favored

DUBLIN, Ireland (AP)—Thanks to the British, Eamon de Valera emerged over the weekend as an almost certain winner in the forthcoming election to choose a president of the Irish Republic.

Hearing on Labor Charge Resumes

A National Labor Relations Board hearing involving an unfair labor practice charge against a local company resumed this morning at City Hall.

Trial Examiner A. Bruce Hunt is conducting the hearing that is considering charges against the Marion Division of the Whirlpool Corp. by the United Auto Workers. The union claims that an employe was discharged for union activities while Whirlpool asserts he was discharged for violation of safety rules.

An amendment to this charge alleges that an Employe Council has been coerced and dominated by the company. The company contends that the council is a group of men, elected from various departments, that meets periodically to discuss with management any problems that they might be aware of and to make suggestions for the improvement of our overall work situation.

Ralph Howard, of the Marion law firm of Mickley, Frericks and Howard, assisted by Philip Willauer, labor relations counsel for Whirlpool Corp., is presenting the company's case. Robert V. Buter and Carroll L. Martin are representing the general counsel of the NLRB.

Henry W. Boles of New Bloomington, an employe of Whirlpool and a member of the Employe Council, was on the stand when the hearing resumed. It had been recessed on Feb. 26 because of the illness of the examiner.

Clements Starts Term

Maurice C. Clements starts his third four-year term as Marion County auditor today. He was appointed to the office in June 1948 after the death of former auditor Harry Mounts and was elected to a two-year term in November 1948. According to law, the auditor's term starts on the second Monday in March while most others begin in January.

OWU Youth Plans Visit to Yugoslavia

DELAWARE—F. Roger Thaler, a senior from Mansfield, has been selected as Ohio Wesleyan University's 1959 "community ambassador." He will represent OWU and the Delaware, O., community this summer in Yugoslavia.

Thaler will live with a Yugoslav family for the first month and hopes to travel to Russia and Austria the second month. He said he chose Yugoslavia since it is "behind the Iron Curtain and is an area where international understanding is badly needed."

The community ambassador project is sponsored by the Experiment in International Living, an organization whose purpose is to strengthen international relations by youth travel programs.

The 20-year-old "ambassador," will make an extensive tour of Delaware before he leaves so he can better interpret life in an American community to his friends in Yugoslavia. He is a pre-law student with a special interest in history.

He has been a justice on men's court for two years and is at present a member of the student government chapel committee. Thaler is vice-president of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Local Man Arrested

William Russell Church, 35, of 223 Bellevue Ave. was arrested early Sunday on N. Main St. by city police. Charged with intoxication and resisting arrest, he was to appear in Municipal Court today.

High Court Admits Crawford Lawyer Sears To Practice

BUCYRUS — Crawford County Prosecutor John D. Sears Jr., Bucyrus, has been admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court in Washington.

Mr. Sears applied for admission to practice before the high court in connection with the Kay Gans Thorn "child bride" case, which now is up for appeal before the court.

The prosecutor said he has filed his briefs with the court after which the case will be considered for appeal.

The case, which originated here in 1956, has worked its way up to the U.S. Supreme Court, via a conviction in Juvenile Court here, a reversal by the Third District Court of Appeals at Lima and upholding of the original decision by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Carl and Katherine Gans of North Robinson, foster parents of Kay Gans, were charged with child delinquency in permitting the marriage of Kay, then 11 years old, to Stanley Thorn, 18, of Galion, in Morgantown, W. Va., in October, 1955. The Thorns later were divorced.

Mr. Sears, who is a partner with his father, J. D. Sears Sr. in a law firm here, was one of 25 attorneys admitted for practice by the Supreme Court. The ceremony was witnessed by his son and daughter.

Sophomore Bob Stewart of Shawneetown, Ill., is the only non-Texan on the University of Texas basketball squad.

$5,793 in Court's Funds Distributed

Payments to city, county and state treasuries from fines, costs and other collection of Marion Municipal Court totaled $5,793 during February.

Mrs. Clara Fleck, clerk, reported that of the total, $2,953 went to the city treasury with $2,534 of this amount collected in the criminal division of the court and the other $419 collected in the civil division.

The state's share of fines and costs collected on highway patrol cases totaled $782 and the county treasurer's share of all court collections was $364.

Part of the money collected by the court also was assigned to the Marion County Law Library Association. Totaling $1,656 for last month, it was taken from fines and costs normally assigned to the city and county treasuries. The court, by state law, is required to pay $3,000 to the law library each year.

Only other payment made during February was for $37 and it went to the sheriff's department for turnkey and milage fees.

Eight Persons Complete Cub Scout Instructions

Eight persons completed the cub scout basic training course conducted Saturday.

Instructor for the day-long affair was Ulmont E. Robinson, cubmaster of Pack 29. He was assisted by R. L. Cummings, a member of the committee of Prospect Pack 23; Walter Sinden, Pack 23 cubmaster, and Floyd Williams, cubmaster of Marion Pack 12.

The three sessions of the course dealt with "What Cub Scouting Is," "The Achievement Plan," and "Den and Pack Activities."

At the Public Library

"Did She Fall or Was She Pushed?" This is the intriguing title of a mystery by Doris Miles Disney, among the 22 new volumes on display at the Marion Carnegie Public Library this week.

The books may be signed out beginning Saturday, Miss Janet Berg, librarian, reported today.

New books are as follows:

FICTION

"Duty Free," Manning Coles; mystery.

"Mrs. Bridge," Evan S. Connell Jr.; episodic snapshots of family life, visits with friends, and rearing children develop into a discerning portrait.

"The Ten Thousand Things," Maria Dermout; a childhood in the Moluccas, recollected in the tranquility of a woman's later years, in vivid, imaginative prose.

"Did She Fall or Was She Pushed?" Doris Miles Disney; mystery.

"The Pillars of Midnight," Elleston Trevor; the personal conflict of a doctor and his wife palls when their small English city mobilizes to fight a smallpox epidemic.

"The Long Rope," William O. Turner; western.

"The Once and Future King," T. H. White; the Arthurian legend retold in modern prose.

NON-FICTION

"They Have Found a Faith," Marcus Bach; little - known religions that 15,000,000 people believe and practice.

"The Story of Modern Art," Sheldon-Cheney; revised and enlarged mid-century edition.

"Knowing Your Trees," G. H. Collingwood and Warren D. Brush; identification photographs of 162 American trees and maps showing where they grow.

"France 1958," Eugene Fodor; travel guide.

"The Metamorphoses," Ovid; a complete new version by Horace Gregory.

"Conservation in America," Dorothy Childs Hogner; the author and the artist traveled with tent and camp kit to secure first hand information.

"Mirror for Man," Clyde Kluckholm; the study of anthropology plays an important role in the reconciliation of today's conflicting culture.

"Reflections on the Psalms," C. S. Lewis.

"Major Sports Techniques," Tyler Micoleau; fundamental techniques of five major sports.

"Aleutians, Gilberts and Marshalls," S. E. Morison; volume 7 of the U. S. Naval Operations in World War II.

"A Seed Shall Serve," Charlie May Simon; biography of Toyohiko Kagawa, spiritual leader of modern Japan.

"Jim Fisk," W. A. Swanberg; the brazen financial buccaneer of the 1860's.

"County Government Across the Nation," Paul W. Wager, editor; Ohio's sample county is Clark County.

"The Fate of the Maine," John Edward Weems; from the laying of the keel in 1888 to its burial in 1912.

"Suburbia," Robert C. Wood; emphasis on suburban political ideology.

Career of Improbable Rascal Outlined in Biography of Fisk

By W. G. ROGERS
Associated Press Book Critic

JIM FISK: The Career of an Improbable Rascal. By W. A. Swanberg. Scribners. $4.50.

Fat Jim Fisk, plump Josie Mansfield and Ned Stokes the Beau Brummel provided one of New York's juiciest scandals and murders. Introduced to each other by Fisk himself, the handsome and unbalanced Stokes and the brazen mistress of Josie plotted to mulct Fisk of money which they intended to spend together. They were no match for the master conniver, and Stokes in desperation shot Fisk to death on the stairway of the Grand Central Hotel.

Fisk was only 37, but he had crowded a fantastic career into his short life. He came from Brattleboro, Vt., where he had the acumen to develop his father's one-horse pack - peddler operation into a business that spread profitably across Vermont and New Hampshire. He married docile teen-age Lucy, whom he found in Springfield, Mass., and left in Boston while he went on ambitiously to New York to battle with the financial greats of his time before he was killed in 1872.

His appetite for big, fast, ruthless business was whetted by his association with Boston's Jordan Marsh, when he acquired a first fortune by Civil War cotton deals. In New York he set up as a broker under the name of Fisk & Belden, and got in with Daniel Drew. From then on he devoted his brains — phenomenally heavy, according to the autopsy — to milking the Erie Railroad of millions, more millions than can ever be reckoned. With its offices in Fisk's Grand Opera House, and it's worn equipment that sent up the accident rate tragically, it gave Fisk a handle for stock manipulation; he tied in with Jay Gould, ditched Drew, fought Vanderbilt, and entertained the unbelievably gullible President Grant when Gould was plotting his gold corner.

Fisk was loathed and despised by some of the best men of his time, from Nast to Greeley to Samuel Bowles, whom he tricked into a night in jail. He had some criminal associates, from the judges he bought to Boss Tweed and the unscrupulous Josie. He was a vain, boastful and absurd show-off with his diamonds and uniforms. But as Swanberg says, he liked people, and plain people seemed to like him, even regarding him as a foil against the unprincipled Vanderbilt.

Swanberg bothers no more than he must with dry stockmarket figures. This is a book about a top-notch sharper, a savory book about an unsavory character.

State Counts 4 Traffic Deaths For Weekend

Accidental Shooting, Hanging Boost Ohio Total to 6 Fatalities

By The Associated Press

A young boy, alone in the basement of his home cast about for a game to play He decided on a make - believe hanging, but tragically, as he tumbled from a chair with a knotted clothesline around his neck, the pretense became reality, and the boy became Ohio's first accidental weekend fatality

He died Friday night By Midnight Sunday, another five had died accidentally, according to an Associated Press count, bringing the weekend total to six

Traffic accidents claimed four lives and an accidental shooting the sixth.

The Fatalities

Friday Night

Jim Wilson, 9, Copley Twp, near Akron, strangled when he fell from a chair with clothesline around his neck

Saturday

Garfield Harris, about 65, Cincinnati when he walked into the path of a car in Springfield

Sunday

William A Whitney, 17, Medina, when his car crashed along Ohio 18, about a mile east of Medina

Troy Lee Booher, 7, Jefferson, of a bullet wound received when his younger brother accidentally fires a pistol their father had just used to kill the ailing family dog.

Oscar E Rupp, 80 and his wife, Mary, 75 Cincinnati, when their car crashed into a utility pole in Cincinnati

Finds Bomb on Porch

MILES, Ohio (AP)—Police Chief John A Ross says he has no idea who placed a bomb on his front porch Ross revealed Sunday that five sticks of dynamite with a 14-foot fuse, which was partially burned was discovered on his porch Friday by a mailman Ross said the person responsible may have charred the end of the fuse and had not intended it to explode

New Contract Signed by Ohio Bell Co., CWA

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—A walk out by some 100 telephone operators at the Ohio Bell Telephone Co's Ironton exchange ended this morning when the 6 a m shift reported for work.

The operators, members of the Communications Workers of America, claimed their walkout was in protest against a new 15 - month contract

Miss Carol Dalton, vice president of the Ironton local said the operators were ordered back to work by CWA officials in Cleveland

Miss Dalton said the Ironton operators were dissatisfied with some of the wording in the new contract She did not elaborate The contract provides wage increases of $1 to $5 a week

Supervisors worked at the exchange here during the night but service was limited to emergency calls

The contract was agreed to in Cleveland early Sunday after two months of negotiations

A Bell spokesman said wage increases and a liberalized pension plan, approved earlier, will cost the company a little more than five million dollars

Basic wage increases in the new contract average 7½ cents an hour and raises the average weekly wage to $78, according to Martin J Hughes, the CWA s Ohio director

The new top scale for operators ranges from $63 to $73 50 a week, compared with $62 to $68 50 under the contract which expired Feb 28 Top weekly rates for plant craftsmen vary from $109 to $120 50 The previous rate was $108 to $115 50

The contract, retroactive to March 1, was to be signed today

Another provision, the union said, provides four weeks vacation after 30 years service The expired contract provided three weeks after 15 years.

Cypriot Underground Leader Abandons Guerrilla Warfare

NICOSIA (AP) — The leader of EOKA, the Greek Cypriot underground, finally told his followers today to lay down their arms and unite behind Archbishop Makarios in the building of the Republic of Cyprus

"I am obliged to order the cessation of the struggle" said Col George Grivas in a mimeographed leaflet distributed from his secret hideout on Cyprus He expressed disappointment Cyprus had not won union with Greece — EOKA's original aim—but said independence "is preferable to national disruption"

Grivas who is 62, told his followers he was retiring and would not take part in politics or public life, either in Cyprus or in Greece

Although he remained in hiding Grivas was expected to fly to Athens in the next few days The British government which formerly had a price of $28 000 on his head, had promised him safe conduct to Greece

The guerrilla chief indicated he would not return to Cyprus, his homeland He said he would "follow anxiously from afar the steps of my suffering and bloodstained motherland"

"Now we must have discipline," he told his people "Foregather all of the united around the Ethnarch (Markarios) who is today the symbol of unity and strength and help him in his difficult task" The proclamation was signed 'EOKA the leader Dighenis," the alias Grivas borrowed from a legendary Greek hero

The little leaflet was the first word from Grivas on the peace agreement signed by Britain, Greece, Turkey and Cypriot political leaders in London Feb 19

East Tech Will Battle Elyria in Regional Tourney

Lima Team Draws Columbus Champs

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If Cleveland East Tech is to repeat as Ohio's Class AA high school basketball champion, the Scarabs will have to get over a pretty high hurdle in their first regional tourney test.

The surviving 16 teams in each classification drew opponents for the regionals Sunday, and East Tech was matched for Wednesday night with Elyria in the qualifier at Berea

Pioneers Seek 24th

The Scarabs have won 21 straight this year, and 47 over the last two campaigns — but Elyria has a 23-game streak going for this season.

This one would be a natural for the state championship finals—the Scarabs are No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and Elyria is No. 3—but one must fall in the "lose-and-out" event Wednesday.

Northwestern of Wayne County, ruler of the Class A contingent and the only survivor of last year's four-team state tourney cast, puts its 23-2 record on the line against Midvale (22-1) at Canton Friday night. If the champs get by that one, they go against the winner of the Old Washington (27-1)-Braceville (25-2) contest in quest of a state tourney berth.

The 16 Class AA teams left of the 412 which started tournament play have a combined record of 301 victories and 53 losses—with East Tech, Elyria and Akron Central (19-0) boasting the only unsullied records.

The "sweet 16" in Class A, survivors of a starting field of 601, have won 354 and lost only 36. Four of them, Convoy-Union (26), Racine (25), Salem Local (25) and New Boston (22), are unbeaten. Racine and New Boston are in the four-team regional field at Athens.

7 AA Champs in Running

Only Northwestern of the Class A group has ever won the state title. But in Class AA, in addition to East Tech, are seven - time champion Middletown, Columbus East, Springfield, New Philadelphia and Xenia, along with Sandusky St. Mary, former Class A king now graduated to the big league.

Regional games are scheduled Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the semifinals — with all championship games Saturday as each class names four qualifiers for the state meet here March 20-21.

The qualifiers will meet at 11 a.m., Sunday, March 15, at Ohio Union on the Ohio State campus for the state pairings and to pick up ticket allotments for the climactic contests.

Lima Cagers Win District Title Here

Lima Senior upset Mansfield 54-47 Saturday night at the Coliseum here for the Marion District cage title. As a result of the victory the Spartans will move into the Toledo Regional tournament Friday night against Columbus East.

The Lima squad jumped into an early lead and after one quarter led the Mansfield squad by a 15-8 margin. At the halftime intermission, Coach Vern Hoffman's Tygers had cut their deficit to 29-25. The winners held only a one-point lead, 41-40, at the start of the final eight minutes of play.

Kirk Gooding topped the Lima attack with 19 points while Gary Moeller recorded 14. Fred Lehr led the Mansfield offense with 16 and Don Ragsdale added 10.

Robert S. Brown, superintendent of Marion city school, presented trophies to both teams following the contest.

Gooding 6-7-19; Moeller 4-6-14; Shine 1-0-2; Baugh 2-1-5; Whittaker 1-4-6; Cartin 1-2-4; Reeder 2-0-4.

No Ideas of Retiring, Says Lou Groza

Kicker Sees Bright Future Ahead For Browns

By ALLAN BOVEY

"I finished my 13th year in the business last season and I can say without reservation that every one of them was enjoyable."

So spoke Lou Groza, burly offensive left tackle of the perennial champion pro football Cleveland Browns, who stopped off at Hotel Harding Saturday en route to help with grand opening festivities for the Marion Plaza shopping center.

Groza, long known as "The Toe" for his place kicking ability, an ability that has affixed his name to virtually every field goal kicking record in the book, spent the best part of an hour reminiscing about his long tenure with the Browns and his associations with some of pro football's all-time greats.

—:—

AS BROWNS' fans well know, Groza played freshman football at Ohio State, where he first caught the eye of Paul Brown, then coach of the OSU grid squad. The service grabbed him up for a three-year stretch but he subsequently graduated in 1949 with a degree in marketing. In the meantime, however, Brown had put together his pro team in Cleveland and Groza was one of its starters. Today he's the last active member of the original group still wearing a Browns uniform. And only teammate Warren Lahr has an edge on him in years, Lou is 35.

Owner of an insurance business in Cleveland, Lou, who stands 6-3 and weighs in the neighborhood of 240 pounds, looks forward to considerable more action with the Browns, although he concedes that he may eventually concentrate on kicking.

Groza recalls that Ohio State's Ernie Godfrey gave him his first real training in accuracy when kicking. As a youth, he had worked on height and distance of his boots by using telephone wires as targets.

"In a game with the neighborhood youngsters, I always got to do the kicking," Groza said, Why? "I owned the football," he declared.

Looking back on 13 years of playing with the Browns, Lou suggests that of the host of rugged opponents he has faced, Al DeRogatis of the New York Giants probably was the best. "You have bad days against specific players," Groza noted, "but I had trouble with DeRogatis all the time. He was one rock I never seemed to be able to move effectively." Lou recalls that DeRogatis, a tackle, suffered a knee injury that put him out of the game right in his prime.

LOU HAS NO notion of the total number of field goals and place kicks he has made, but says his best year at placements was the one in which he sent 23 of 26 attempts spinning over the crossbar.

(Turn to LOU GROZA, Page 17)

Pinson Shows Speed in Boner On Base Paths

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Fleet-footed Vada Pinson can whack all the home runs he wants for Cincinnati's Reds, but he's got to look where he's running.

The 20-year-old Californian hit what looked like a sure grand-slam homer Saturday against Chicago's White Sox, but he converted it to a single before he was half around the bases.

Pinson sped so fast between first and second that he overtook the previous occupant of first base, Ello Chacon.

But the ninth-inning hit did bring in the winning run in a 4-3 exhibition Redleg victory, and team brass are inclined to play down the base-running bobble.

White Sox Manager Al Lopez has a similar view of Pinson. He said Sunday:

"Don't see how he can miss developing into one of the game's better center fielders. I've never seen any better wrists on a hitter.

Pinson burned up the Pacific Coast League last season at Seattle batting .343, driving in 78 runs and stealing 37 bases.

Giants Hoping To Trade for Braves' Conley

By The Associated Press

The word floating back and forth between the Arizona Cactus and the Florida citrus is that the San Francisco Giants could win the National League pennant this year if. . .

The if is another right-handed pitcher. His name is Gene Conley and at the moment he is performing for the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn., and carrying on side feud with the Milwaukee Braves.

Oppose Cage Action

The Braves don't like the idea of their chattel playing basketball when he could be working out with the club, for which he didn't win a game last year.

He is trade bait, and the Giants have admitted they've reached the talking stage of a deal for the lanky right-hander. But so far the asking price has been too high.

A case in point happened Sunday when the Cleveland Indians licked the Giants, 3-2, in Phoenix, Ariz.

Paul Giel forced in the winning run in the eighth inning by walking pitcher John Briggs. Vic Power, who had opened the inning with a triple, scored and that was the ball game.

The Pittsburgh Pirates, another sleeper in the NL, scored their second victory over the champion Milwaukee Braves, a 2-1, decision at Bradentown, Fla. Bob Porterfield, Don Rowe and Laurin Pepper combined to hold the Braves to four hits. Both Pirate runs were unearned.

Yankkees Clip Cards

The world champion New York Yankees, held hitless for seven innings, outlasted the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-3, in 11 innings at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Elsewhere on the exhibition circuit, the Baltimore Orioles edged the Kansas City A's, 3-2, in 14 innings at Miami.

Bradley Nails Win

Cincinnati Cagers Battle St. Louis for NCAA Berth

By The Associated Press

Who gets basketball's Oscar The National Invitation Tournament or the NCAA Championships

The question could be answered tonight when Oscar Robertson, the second straight year, leads the Cincinnati Bearcats against the Bradley Braves at Cincinnati.

If Cincinnati wins, the Bearcats will be in the NCAA title event as the Missouri Valley Conference representative with Texas Christian their first opponent at Lawrence, Kan., Friday. Bradley then would fill the last open spot in the 12-team NIT play opening at New York's Madison Square Garden Thursday.

Playoff Goal Possible

Should St. Louis defeat Cincinnati, the question will be answered at Wichita, Kan., Wednesday with the Braves and Bearcats meeting in a playoff. Cincinnati has a 12-1 conference record and Bradley 12-2 after breaking even in a home-and-home series. St. Louis, already in the NIT, is third at 10-3.

The Missouri Valley Conference bracket is one of the two remaining spots to be filled before 23 teams start play in the NCAA title event. The other is the Border Conference for which New Mexico State and Arizona State University meet for the title tonight. The Border ended in a three-way deadlock but New Mexico eliminated Texas Western 65-48 in the first play-off game Saturday night.

Two brackets were filled in play-off games Saturday. Dartmouth edged Princeton 69-68 for the right to represent the Ivy League and Bowling Green beat Miami of Ohio 76-63 to get the nod from the Mid-American Conference.

Meantime, DePaul got the jump on the remainder of the NCAA championship field by turning back Portland 57-56 in a first round game between two at-large selections at Portland. The victory moved DePaul into the Lawrence regional, where the Demons will meet Kansas State, Big Eight champions, Friday.

Pairings Are Complete

Here's how other first round play shapes up in NCAA action:

Tuesday at New York—West Virginia vs. Dartmouth; Connecticut vs. Boston University; North Carolina vs. Navy. The winners join St. Joseph's of Pennsylvania in Charlotte, N.C., Friday and Saturday.

Tuesday at Lexington, Ky.—Eastern Kentucky vs. Louisville; Bowling Green at Marquette. The winners move on to Evanston, Ill., Friday and Saturday for the Mid-East regionals into which Kentucky and Michigan State drew a bye.

Wednesday at Tempe, Ariz., or State College, N.M. —Border Conference representative vs Idaho State. The winner takes on St. Mary's (Calif.) in one game and California meets Utah in the other Friday at San Francisco.

Robertson Cinches U.S. Scoring Title

By The Associated Press

Oscar Robertson of Cincinnati has wrapped up the major college individual scoring title for the second straight year.

Robertson dropped Saturday when he scored only 24 points while Cincinnati was losing to Bradley. But his 33.6 average gave him a big lead over his next four rivals, who have completed their seasons.

Juniors Place Third

YMCA Swimmers Take 2 Area Titles

Marion YMCA swimmers reached a pinnacle of performance Saturday in the second annual Ohio-West Virginia Area district "Y" swimming championships at Bowling Green State University by winning titles in the intermediate and prep divisions from favored Lima and Columbus teams. The five-man junior team placed a close third behind Columbus and Toledo.

The Marion intermediate team made up of Harding High School boys fought back a strong challenge by the Lima High team representing the "Y" to edge them by three points in the closest team battle.

FINAL SCORES were Marion 70, Lima 67, Toledo 52, Columbus 14, Findlay 15, and Newark 6. The win was a real team effort with all nine Marion entries scoring led by Captain Ed Cooper with 14½ points.

Cooper took the century backstroke in a new record time of 1:04.3 and stroked to a third in the butterfly. Al McKee, sophomore breaststroker, easily won his specialty and also had a fourth in the butterfly. Diver Bob Finney won the springboard event while teammate Dick White finished a close third. In the 50-yard freestyle Marion's Bruce Kohler placed fourth and Finney took a fifth. Kohler moved up to second in the century sprint followed by Dan Thompson in fourth place. Thompson also had a second in the 200-yard freestyle after leading most of the race. Scott Pickerel finished the individual scoring with a close fifth in the breaststroke. In relay action, the Marion medley team of Cooper, McKee, Kohler and Thompson broke another district mark to edge a strong Lima team with a time of 1:57.7 bettering the old mark of 2:00.6 by Marion last year. The freestyle team of Pickerel, Finney, Tom Ruzzo and John Wettergreen took fifth for four points and the winning margin.

TOM IVERS AND Bob White shared scoring honors with 13½ points each. Ivers started the scoring with a record breaking effort in the 50-yard freestyle finishing in :26.5 seconds to trim four-tenths off the old record. Jack Howser took fourth in the same event with a good time of :27.7 seconds. Jim Lenavitt, recovering from a broken hand took a sixth in a good butterfly field then Bob White, 1958 area prep champ, swam to a first place in the 50 yard breaststroke. Ivers came back to just miss another win in the century freestyle as he took second behind Lima's Dave Wilt who broke Bruce Kohler's record by a tenth second and Bob White suffered the same near chance for a double win as Justus of Columbus edged him by three-tenths of a second in the 100-yard individual medley. Diver Mike Bartley placed third in a strong diving field while Marion's freestyle team of White, Lenavitt, Howser and Ivers placed fourth.

Marion swimmers thus took 11 firsts in the 27 event—program and set five new district marks. The junior and intermediate swimmers wil lmove on to the area championships at Ohio State on March 21 while the prep winners will have their times compared with those made in the other three district meets to determine the area champs. Next week a contingent of Marion swimmers have entered the Glass City AAU Championships at Toledo to warm up for the final area meet.

THE MARION prep team ended its season by dominating the field unexpectedly to build a team total of 62½ points followed by Mansfield 46, Columbus 42½, Toledo 35, Findlay 25, and Lima 9.

Scoring in every event the Marion team captured Ohio "Y" swim honors as well as the district title. Jay Plymale and Terry Green started the scoring with a third and fifth in the 25-yard freestyle sprint with the top three breaking the old record. Tom Shambaugh won the 25 yard butterfly just missing the record of :14.5 held by Marion's Bob White, 1958 state champ, as he finished in :14.6 seconds. Backstroker Danny Hale finished fourth just three-tenths behind the winner in a very close event. Breaststroker John Murray helped in the record-breaking by easily outsprinting the field in the fine time of :17.6 to break the old mark of :17.8 by White

Wins Title in Playoff

Bowling Green Nails 76-63 Victory Over Miami Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's collegiate cage campaign was practically a matter of history today, and the final chapter of the 1959 saga was a dilly.

After a full season of maneuvering, the clubs were forced down to the wire to reach decisions in three conference races — and another hinges on a game tonight.

The big one tonight has Cincinnati's Bearcats hosting St. Louis, and the Queen City powerhouse must win to grab the undisputed Missouri Valley Conference crown. The Bearcats lost a chance to wrap it up Saturday as they lost to second-place Bradley 84-66 after leading by eight at halftime.

Should St. Louis upset the 'Cats, Bradley will share the laurels.

In other eye-catching action last week, Wittenberg handed Akron its first Ohio Conference defeat, 70-52, the Springfield Lutherans taking the championship on the sprawling 14-college circuit. A bid to the small college NCAA tourney went with the victory, but Wittenberg bowed out of that arena in the second game.

Miami, king of the rugged Mid-American Conference the last two years, and leader all the way this season, lost its last two games and allowed Bowling Green to ease in for half the championship. In a playoff for the NCAA berth which goes with the M-A title, Bowling Green was a convincing 76-63 victor on Dayton's neutral floor.

John Carroll snagged the Presidents' Conference championship in the final game Saturday, winding up with 10-1 to Washington and Jefferson's 9-1 record. Case, leader most of the season, finished third after losing several players in mid-year tests.

Following tonight's St. Louis-Cincinnati game, only Tuesday's Western Reserve at Fenn tilt, and a few tournament games, remain on the Buckeye agenda.

Swimmers

last year. Placing in the 50-yard freestyle was Tom Shambaugh with a third and Jay Plymale with a tie for fifth. Dave Richards won the diving event.

Marion's team strength became apparent in the relay events as the quartet of Hale, Murray, Shambaugh and Green smashed the 100 yard medley record by over four seconds with a fast 1:04.4 timing compared to the old record of 1:08.7 by Toledo. In the freestyle relay the team of Steve McKenzie, Chubby Wettergreen, Plymale and Green won a thriller to cinch the victory.

Perhaps the most unexpected showing was by the Marion junior team that finished a strong third on the efforts of only a five-man team. Scoring was Columbus 62½, Toledo 44, Marion 38, Findlay 34½, Lima 34, and Mansfield 24.

MCI Cagers Nail 75-64 Win Against Whirlpool

The Marion Correctional Institution rallied in the last half to clip Whirlpool Saturday by a 75-64 count. The Whirlpool squad grabbed a 14-12 lead in the first period and led at the half by a 28-25 margin.

The Hornets came back in the third stanza to assume a 54-50 lead and won going away. Byrd pumped in 31 points to lead the MCI attack and Kellom added 10. Williams was high for the losers with 21 while Hickman netted 12.

'Y' Wrestlers Capture Third Straight Title

Pitted against some of the best wrestlers in the Central Ohio District, the Marion YMCA wrestling team ran away with its third consecutive title at the Marion Invitational Wrestling Tournament here Saturday.

The locals ran up a margin of 58 points to runner-up Zanesville's 20. Ashland followed closely with 18 points, Columbus recorded 13 points and Huntington, Ind., was unable to score.

More Sports On Page 21

Marion's position was greatly assisted during the preliminary matches in the 112 and 145 pound groups as the locals placed two men in the finals in each of those classifications. Marion also scored in 10 of the 11 weight groups in the tournament.

Loses in Finals

At 103 pounds Buster Vande Water moved into the finals only to be stopped by the able Don Warne of Zanesville 0-6. At 112 pounds both Dale Kibbey and Bob Kuhn of the locals moved into the final round with Kibbey gaining the championship on a pin over his teammate at 5:05.

Marion failed to score in the 120-pound class as its only entry in that division, Bill Haynes, was injured during the regular match against Nelson of Zanesville and was unable to continue in the overtime period. Arnie Halterman of Ashland went on to take that title.

At 127 pounds Chris Kimball fell to Glen Rowley of Columbus who later went on to win the championship at that weight and also the best wrestler award. Joel Lenavitt was the upset victim of teammate Martin Kaufman who went on to take second in that division falling to Rowley at 2:20.

At 133 Bill Thatcher nabbed the crown with victories over Sponsler of Ashland in 1:10 and Harris of Ashland in 45 seconds. In exhibition, following the tourney, Thatcher whipped Rowley, who had gained the best wrestler award, 9-5. At 138 Harry Spring beat Farber of Huntington 3-2, Fred Kibbey of Marion 2-0, and Booth of Zanesville to win that title. Also at that weight Bob Davenport pinned Lowe of Columbus at 5:50 before losing to Booth of Zanesville 9-0. Fred Kibbey also whipped Gary Halterman of Ashland with a pin at 1:57 before losing to Spring.

Marion One-Two

At 145 Marion's one-two punch of Kelley and Beaver took a first and second place respectively. Doug Beaver beat Dean of Columbus with a fall at 3:30 and Bud Kelley stopped Dyser of Zanesville 6-2 before Kelley won the final match with a pin at 5:10 over his teammate. Mike Moore, wrestling his first bout, lost to Dyer with a fall in 37 seconds.

At 154 John Keller took a second place award after losing to his old rival Lynn Worstell of Zanesville with a fall at 3:10. Gerry Gibson won his 165-pound crown by default.

At 175 Abner Thomas stopped Henry of Columbus with a pin at 3:00, but fell victim to 5-2 decision by Gary Newcomer of Ashland to gain a second place ranking. At heavyweight rookie Pete Wollinger found his winning form to beat Butler of Zanesville on a pin at 1:55 and returning to gain the championship with a decisive 9-5 victory over Becker of Columbus. The best sportsman award went to Don Warne of Zanesville.

Bowling

Rolling Saturday night at the Marion Recreation Center were Erie and Ladies Commercial loops. Mr. and Mrs. and the Moose took over Sunday. Palace scorers were in action Saturday at the Palace, with Eagles Mixed taking the boards Sunday. Klassi Keglers took their turn Saturday at the Plaza, with the Pin Pounders going Sunday.

Also Has Visa Trouble

Minoso Blames Service With Castro for Lateness

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — Minnie Minoso, fined $500 for reporting late to the Cleveland Indians' training camp, blamed his tardiness in part on Fidel Castro.

The Cleveland slugger, who played winter baseball in Cuba, said Cuba's rebel leader made him a lieutenant and sent him to Venezuela as a good will ambassador during the Caribbean series in Caracas.

"But you came back from there weeks ago," Tribe General Manager Frank Lane told him. "I saw your picture in the paper getting in shape by signing autographs."

Minoso then told of troubles in getting a visa for a Cuban player he had scouted and whom Lane wanted in this country.

"I promised I would and I didn't want to go back on my word," said Minoso. "Now maybe I'll turn in a $500 bill for expenses."

The 36-year-old outfielder, reportedly the highest paid man on the Tribe's rouster, said he is in good shape and ready to play.

Manager Joe Gordon said he is not worried about Herb Score despite the battering Score received Saturday in three innings against the San Francisco Giants.

The Giants scored eight runs in those three innings. It was one of the worst beatings Score has suffered but he refused to quit until his three-inning stint was finished.

"His arm is all right, and I know he'll come around," Gordon declared.

LEAGUE MEETING SLATED

The Marion Junior High School League will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight at Baker Junior High School. This is a semi-annual meeting to plan for the spring track and fall football schedules. Members are the coaches and principals of the three junior high schools.

Lou Groza

What was the field goal that gave him his biggest thrill? "I expect," he said, "it was the one that beat the Los Angeles Rams in 1950. Browns fans well remember that game, in which, with only seconds left to play and Cleveland in possession, Otto Graham moved the ball squarely between the goal posts on the 18-yard-line. The kick was child's play for Groza and the Browns had the championship.

And, "The Toe" recalled another big satisfaction was a 46-yard boot that beat the Giants in 1957.

Has Groza kicked the longest field goal No. That's one mark not yet his. Bert Rechichar of the Baltimore Colts holds that honor with a boot that traveled 56 yards for 3 points. Lou has one of 53 to his credit.

What happened to Cleveland against the Giants last season "Who knows," Groza says. "That long field goal beat us in one of them, the play that provoked a question about a loose ball turned the trick in the other. It was just one of those things. We were going all out all the way," he added, "but they were up for us. A break can win any game for any team."

The Browns' ace thinks Otto Graham the greatest quarterback the game has known, which includes the likes of John Unitas, Norm Van Brocklin, Bobby Lane and a few other practitioners of pro football at its best.

He debunks the notion that the Browns did not play their best with Graham out of action. "After all," he observed, pro football is a business and the player who does not operate at peak efficiency is liable to be out of a job."

Groza thinks Milt Plum will still be Cleveland's No. 1 quarterback next fall, with Jim Ninowski given a "good chance" to beat him out. "Plum will have the experience behind him that is necessary in the pro grame," Groza said. "The Transition from college to pro football is the same as from high school to college. There are very few boys who can come off a high school field and take over a first string college team job. Milt has some very valuable experience under his belt."

HOW ABOUT the Browns' chances in the season forthcoming "They should be good," says the durable Cleveland lineman. He pointed out that while Don Colo, Don Paul and Darrel Brewster have all retired since last season, the Browns are loaded in the halfback spot wherein run such stalwarts as Lou Carpenter, Bobbie Mitchell and Ray Renfro. "It may be that one of those boys will be switched to an end," Groza mused. And, he suggested that Gary Prahst, the Browns' pick of Michigan's players, will probably "figure high in Browns' plans."

Groza looks for the Browns and the Pittsburg Steelers to be the "big teams" in the Eastern Division of the NFL next fall. And, he figures the world champion Colts will be given a "run for their money" by the Rams.

How much longer does Groza think he'll be around "That's a good question," he said. Is the job of conditioning harder now at 35 than it used to be "No," was Lou's answer. "It's all in your mental attitude," he asserted. "I love the game and getting ready to play as well as actually playing has never been a real chore. After all, I'm graded on my performance and if it isn't up to the standard set forth by Paul Brown, I'm not going to be playing long."

Who will do the kicking when "The Toe" is not around? Bob Gain is the best bet for the roll at present.

But, there is little doubt that when Cleveland lines up to begin its next campaign, Lou Groza, whose ability to kick has made him the best in the business, will not be in at offensive left tackle. And when, one day, he isn't there, fans will still remember, when field goal or placement situations arise, how "The Toe" used to get the job done. For few players, football or otherwise, rise to the stature achieved by Lou Groza, whose success, individually, has been commensurate with the success of the Browns, collectively.

Two Records Set At Denison Relays

GRANVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Steve Enck of Ashland and Paul Warfield of Warren Harding each set a new record for the Denison University High School Indoor Relays.

The largest field ever — 375 trackmen—were entered in Saturday's fifth annual relays in which 29 schools were represented but no team points awarded.

Of 12 events, Warren Harding, Rocky River and Columbus East each won two.

Enck leaped 6 feet, 1½ inches in the high jump, breaking the old relays mark of 6-1. Warfield's 22-foot broad jump was 2½ inches better than the previous record.

Radio and Television

By JOHN CROSBY

Backward New York

On my lecture tour I am impressed and just a little abashed to discover that the first question on everyone's lips is a sort of half-belligerent, half-prayerful: "How about educational television?"

JOHN CROSBY

I'm tempted to reply: "Yeah, how about that!"—and let it go at that. Because, I'm afraid I come from a very backward city in that regard. In some 24 cities — none of them New York — educational television stations are now busily disgorging education on the daytime and night-time air.

However, while we don't have a station, we do have the Metropolitan Education Television Assn. trying to catch up, mostly with daytime programs on Channel 11. The other day I had a talk with Richard Heffner, director of programming at META, on just what they're up to at META these days.

-:-

"WE HAVE quite diverse programming now," he said. "For instance, we have a French course each day, a course on the Far East is given on Wednesdays by Dr. John Stoessinger of Hunter College, playwrights in the contemporary theater given by Norris Houghton, and a Russian course by Miss Katherine Alexieff of St. John's."

Not long ago META invited some of its Russian students to its headquarters at the Carnegie Endowment International Center and conducted its TV class from there.

This was partly to find out how many people were taking its Russian course, partly to dramatize an appeal for funds. The results were gratifying. Students of Russian of all ages, including some Boy Scouts from New Jersey, overflowed the room, happily phrasing Miss Alexieff's sentences and answering questions in Russian on camera.

Russian is not an easy language to teach but it can be taught on TV and is being taught in 32 cities. If Russian can be taught, anything can be taught on television.

WHILE ETV (Education Television) is supposed to have a small audience, Heffner says with great earnestness that ETV alone can really reach all of the people:

"Everyone wants to learn, to know, to grow — in some area or other. ETV doesn't have to capture the largest possible audience —all at the same time — as the commercial stations do. But cumulatively it can get your interest with one kind of program, mine with another.

"ETV can truly foster alternative programming. This makes it possible to reach all of the people —and it doesn't have to worry about getting them all at once."

The educational and cultural challenges that confront this country are manifold and Heffner thinks the greatest weapon — and one of the most neglected — is educational TV. Wistfully, he speaks of his hope that American industry might see educational TV as a unique opportunity to support and enrich American education.

-:-

"OF COURSE, idealistically," he said, "it should be done by subscription. If 5 per cent of the television homes in the New York area subscribed to ETV at only $10 a year, it would mean we would have 2½ million dollars to support the best educational station in the country."

He admitted the possibilities were at the moment dim.

"As a program director of META I can spend $25 a day per program. That's a pretty slim budget."

Certainly for the greatest city in the United States it's fairly paltry.

A glance at Channel 11 during the day will show META's strong points and weaknesses. I have watched warm, relaxed, vital teachers imparting science so skillfully that it was a pleasure to watch.

-:-

I HAVE SEEN math courses in sing-song English by bored teachers who almost put me to sleep. We have all had teachers like that in school. There's no excuse for having them on television.

But even with its small budget and sometimes shaky foundation, META always has caused a run on course books in local stores, brought forth innumerable letters to me, and tremendous interest from all levels and all ages.

Right now, it's preparing courses for distribution on languages and linguistics, astronomy, poets and poetry. This is just the beginning of what the Rockefeller Report calls "a long overdue revolution in teaching techniques."

Eastern Winters Show Climb in Temperatures

MADISON, Wis. (AP) — A University of Wisconsin meteorologist says Grandpa is right about those winters when he was young. They were colder, especially in the eastern part of the country.

Reid Bryson, head of the meteorology department, said winter temperatures in the North Atlantic states are up an average of 10 degrees since 1885. On the other hand, the Pacific Coast area is getting cooler. He added that meteorologists don't know why.

Convicts Face New Charges As Massachusetts Break Fails

WALPOLE, Mass. (AP) — Authorities today prepared criminal actions against six state prison inmates who grabbed six hostages and threatened to kill them in a two-hour reign of terror Saturday.

Steel-helmeted guards burst into the prison's metal shop to rescue the hostages who included Warden John A. Gavin and the Rev. Edward F. Hartigan, Catholic chaplain.

Nearly 100 state troopers gathered outside the prison. On a signal from Maj. Arthur J. O'Leary 25 troopers broke through seven windows and a door with orders to "shoot to kill."

The tough convicts gave up quickly when they saw the troopers armed with machine guns, riot guns, rifles, revolvers and tear gas bombs.

Moments earlier they had poured inflammable paint thinner over the hostages and threatened to set them afire. The convicts tied some of the hostages with wire and threatened them with knives.

Authorities identified the leader of the abortive break-out attempt as Martin F. Feeney, 43, of Boston. They said the others were Robert J. Savage, 29, of Brookline; Kenneth E. Abrahamson, 25, Russell T. Halladay, 30, George T. Harrison, and Robert Howard, both 25.

All are serving long sentences —up to 55 years.

Held hostage with Warden Gavin and Father Hartigan were two deputy wardens, a guard and a guard and a civilian storekeeper.

URBAN DISTASTE

NEW YORK (AP)—Protestantism has developed an "anti-urban bias," says the Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglass, a Congregational Christian leader. He writes in Harper's magazine that this is a cause for Protestant decline in the cities, adding: "If Protestantism gives up the city, it virtually gives up America. Yet that is precisely what it has been doing."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute.

This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name *Preparation H. At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

TV Highlights

TONIGHT

7:30, WTVN, Ringling Bros. Circus: A variety of acts from the circus will be presented on an hour-long show.

7:30, WBNS, Sea Hunt: During a hurricane, an Air Force bomber is forced to "ditch" an unarmed nuclear bomb off the coast of South America. Sea water corrodes the bomb casing, threatening an explosion at any moment. Mike Nelson's perilous assignment is to find the bomb and recover it before it goes off.

8, WLW-C, The Restless Gun: Vint Bonner takes on two ruthless gunmen who have induced a mild-mannered former school teacher from the East to help them hold up a bank. The ex-teacher is easy prey to the robbers because he believes he is a failure at ranching.

8, WBNS, The Texan: Lon Chaney and Marion Seldes are featured with Rory Calhoun when Bill Longley answers a plea for help from a wartime buddy who, ashamed of his own grotesque appearance, has sent his mail-order bride Longley's picture instead of his own.

8:30, WLW-C, Tales of Wells Fargo: A recluse dies and leaves his ranch to a young man, but when the heir attempts to claim his inheritance he runs when the recluse turns out to be an old outlaw believed dead for many years.

8:30, WTVN, Bold Journey: Ancient armor used by the soldiers of Coronado while hunting for the Seven Cities of Cibola is found by a pair of youthful adventurers in "The Tarahumara's Trail."

8:30, WBNS, Father Knows Best: Bud wins a medal at the high school track meet and immediately suggests that the Anderson family construct a cabinet to house their various trophies. His mother, embarrassed because she has never won anything in her life, secretly starts practicing fly-casting in preparation for the Ladies' Day fishing contest.

9, WLW-C, Peter Gunn: When Racketeer Mickey Quoit is refused permission by Police Lt. Jacoby to operate in his precinct, Quoit gets his revenge by framing Jacoby in the murder of a delicatessen owner and having him stripped of his badge. An outraged Peter Gunn sets out to find out who framed his friend.

9, WBNS, Danny Thomas Show: Frankie Laine flaunts the threat of measles when he visits the Williams family.

9:30, WLW-C, Alcoa Theater: Brandon DeWilde stars as George Adams who has become the man of the house at the age of 14. When his mother (Agnes Moorehead) insists that George submit to a Saturday night whipping for misbehavior, he refuses, saying he is too old, and she seeks the help of the town patriarch.

9:30, WBNS, Ann Sothern Show: Hopes of becoming manager of The Bartley House go glimmering for Katy O'Connor when a new boss takes over the hotel. This segment introduces Don Porter as James Devery, the new manager. Porter appeared for four years with Miss Sothern in her first TV series, "Private Secretary."

10, WLW-C, Arthur Murray Party: Cornelia Otis Skinner, Rita Gam, Denise Darcel, Enzo Stuarti, Judy Lynn and Mitchell Parrish are guests.

10, WTVN, Patti Page Show: Duke Ellington and the Dukes of Dixieland are guests.

10, WBNS, Lucille Ball - Desi Arnaz Show: Fred MacMurray and his wife, June Haver, will be guest stars with the Ricardos and the Mertzes when "Lucy Hunts Uranium." It is a rebroadcast of one of last year's episodes.

11:15, WLW-C, Jack Paar Show: Singer Rosemarie is guest.

Cleveland Man, Woman Get Practical Training

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. Barbara Kelley, 22, and her brother, Harold Esterwood, 23, recently got some unscheduled training. Coming home at night, Mrs. Kelley was grabbed by a man. Her brother heard her cries, raced out of the family apartment nearby and collared a 19-year-old youth.

The brother and sister work for the state in a juvenile diagnostic center, trying to figure out why delinquents act as they do.

The great St. Louis bridge was built by James B. Eads in 1872. A 93-degree temperature caused the bridge to expand in the finishing moments, so he ordered tons of ice packed around the bridge girders so it would be compplete within the time specified.

Children of the Bible

By Patrick and Garrison

RUTH

"And Ruth said, Intreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee: for whither thou goest, I will go . . ."

—Ruth 1:16

Simple charm, faith, patience—that was Ruth.

She grew up in the land of Moab, on the east side of the deep gulf of the Dead Sea. There the rich, rolling country in her day produced abundant crops which supported a large number of cities, the ruins of which are still scattered across the whole region.

Her village was surrounded with orchards, vineyards, and fields of grain. From a very early age, Ruth was probably accustomed to help her family with tasks such as harvesting and winnowing the grain, picking the heavy ripe clusters of grapes from the sunny hillsides, and helping with the sowing.

At home, she helped her mother with household chores: stirring the supper stew with a big clay ladle, or lifting meat from the broiler with a heavy bronze spearing-fork that her small hands could scarcely manage.

Squatting with the women around the bee-hive baking pot on a cold day, she often listened quietly to the gossip that accompanied the village baking.

The topics of discussion were the same that have occupied women since the beginning of time—new recipes and remedies, the cost of living, a neighbor's sickness, rumors of war.

But the stories of a wife's devotion or a mother's self-sacrifice and loyalty stirred Ruth's imagination most. It seemed to her that unselfish love was a woman's most priceless virtue.

Later, when her foreign husband had died, it was this sense of love and duty that made her choose to go with Naomi, her mother-in-law back to Bethlehem. She knew that a Moabite would not be welcome, but she said, "Thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God."

So in the little town of Bethlehem she married Boaz and became an ancestress of Jesus.

Love like Ruth's knows no national boundaries and no religious barriers.

Shares Doubles Lead

Connie Gibson Sets Pace In Women's Singles Race

The annual Marion Women's City Bowling Tournament got under way on the alleys of the Palace Recreation Center Saturday and Sunday and when the clatter had died down, Hammond's Insurance was leading in the team competition with a total of 2920 pins.

Dorothy Rhinehart and Connie Gibson had combined terms to score a high 1184 in doubles play, while the latter wound up in possession of the individual high total with a creditable 638.

The second half of the tourney will be rolled next weekend.

—:—

FINISHING UP second to Hammond's was the Dan Dee crew with a 2839. May's came in third with a 2819, while Groll's was fourth, 2807, and Short Ford fifth, 2777.

The other finishers in the top 10 category were as follows: Pollak, 2768; Goodrich, 2766; Lee's Steak House, 2739; Carling's, 2730; and Osborne's (Saturday night), 2705.

Lois Vanderford and Mildred Thome wound up second to the Rhinehart - Gibson duo, scoring 1168 pins. Sally Murray and Maxine Roseberry were third with a 1157 showing, while Edith Loyer and Mickey Carpenter ended fourth, 1133, and Stella Sharp and Leona Spangler fifth, 1129.

A total of 12 doubles entries finished above the 1100 mark. In addition to those already noted, Florence Wilcox and Caroline Ulsh had a 1125, Ruby Browning and Helen Angus a 1120, Marge Fields and Mary Cosgrove a 1116, Edna Applegett and Tommie Bacon a 1115, Emily Stephenson and Dorothy Burkepile a 1113, Virginia Klingel and Mary Solomon a 1104, and Marlene Furniss and Betty Partlow a 1103.

THE HIGH SCORERS in individual play, in addition to front-running Connie Gibson, were as follows, noted in order of their scoring: Helen Angus, 619; Sally Murray, 610; Lucille Crock, 606; Florence Wilcox, 596; Mary Solomon, 593; Mickey Carpenter, 592; Marge Layton, 590; Dorothy Burkepile, 588; Ruth Saidleman, 580; Katy Taylor, 578; Dorothy Rhinehart, 572; Mary Cosgrove, 571; Emily Stephenson, 571; Carol Frahner, 570; Marlene Furniss, 567; Marge Bigley, 566; Leona Spangler, 565; and Emily Lichty, 563.

The defending champions in the doubles event is the team of Wilma Britton and Mary Brown, who scored a total of 1161 pins a year ago. Florence Stumbo had the singles high, consisting of three games plus handicap, of 638. Dorothy Rhinehart holds the series title with a 553, while Charby Price is defending her 223 score for a single game.

In the actual pins, all-events competition, Dorothy Rhinehart wears the crown with a 1518 score. She also has the high single game of 235, while Mary Brown holds the series honors with a 558. Hammond's is defending its team title of 2344 in series play, 844 in singles.

1-B—IN MEMORIAMS

IN MEMORY of Henry S. Stose, who passed away one year ago today, March 9, 1958.
Sleep on dear dad, it has been one long year.
Since you left our home, filled with sadness and tears;
Although God took you from us, we cannot forget.
Sadly missed by daughter,
Mrs. Relvia Hoch
Mrs. Cleo Cochran.

IN MEMORY of Philip Albert, who passed away March 9, 1957.
Where he sat and talked to me
There's just an empty chair.
And the silence now at evening,
Seems more than I can bear.
Though I knew that some day,
There would be that empty chair
Yet I could never picture
Home without him there.
I never fully realized,
How deeply one can care,
Until I stood alone one night
Beside an empty chair.
Sadly missed by his family.

THE HEART OF JULIET JONES By Stan Drake

ALL MY LIFE I'VE BEEN TAUGHT TO CONCEAL MY FEELINGS, EVE--AS THOUGH EMOTIONS WERE THINGS TO BE ASHAMED OF... BUT...
...WITH YOU... SITTING CLOSE TO ME, I FIND THAT I WANT TO BE EMOTIONAL.. I WANT YOU TO KNOW HOW DEEPLY I FEEL ABOUT YOU...
AND--AND I'M NOT AFRAID OF EXPOSING MY SENTIMENTS BECAUSE I SENSE A RESPONSE IN YOU THAT TELLS ME THAT YOU FEEL VERY MUCH AS I DO!

YES, I'M E. KENT HARDLY. I'M THE--
--HE'S THE BROTHER OF CHARLEY HARDLY, THE SLOT MACHINE KING, BUT CHARLEY AND HE HAVEN'T ASSOCIATED TOGETHER FOR FORTY YEARS.
WE PARTED COMPANY WHEN I WAS...
--WHEN HE WAS 14 YEARS OLD. CHARLEY WENT CROOKED--BUT KENT WENT STRAIGHT.
MR. HARDLY, WHEN YOU TELEPHONED THEIR HIDE-OUT, DID YOU DO IT WITH THE IDEA OF SHIELDING YOUR NEPHEW FROM THE POLICE?
I SHOULD SAY HE DIDN'T! HE PHONED TO TELL CHARLEY HIS SON WAS DYING ON THE FLOOR OF OUR STORE.
THREE OF THE SONS ARE DEAD, AND THE FATHER IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION.
I'M NOT SURPRISED-- WE'VE EXPECTED IT FOR YEARS.

Please roll up your window, Rufus. It's chilly back here.
I can't, Ma'am. I've got to signal with my hand.
3-9
Not any more, Rufus. That little lever signals the car behind.
I don't know. They didn't have them on jeeps in the war.
Just push it up to turn right, pull it down to go left.
Okay, if you say so. But I ain't goin' to like it.

JOE PALOOKA By Ham Fisher

I'LL TAKE THAT STOLEN RING, MR. WALSH!
B-BUT-- BILGEY FORCED IT ON ME...SAID I COULD HAVE IT CHEAP!
HE CONFESSED ...YOU'RE IN THE CLEAR!
WHEW! I'LL NEVER LET ANYBODY OFFER ME A "BARGAIN" AGAIN!
HEY, KNOBS... I HOID YA WANT T'BUY A RING FER KITTY... I CAN GET ONE FER YA--100% WHOLESALE!

WHAT MAKES YOU THINK YOUR TWIN SISTER MAY BE MURDERED, GLORIA?
GLENDA WAS ALWAYS RATHER WILD, RIP. I KNOW THAT SINCE SHE CAME TO NEW YORK ON A VISIT SHE'S BEEN MEETING DANGEROUS-LOOKING CHARACTERS...
SHE REFUSES TO STAY HERE WITH ME BUT HAS GONE TO THE HIGHTOWER HOTEL. I'M TOLD THAT AT NIGHT SHE GOES ABOUT THE CITY ALONE...
PLEASE SAY YOU'LL KEEP AN EYE ON HER ON THESE NIGHTTIME EXPEDITIONS FOR THE FEW MORE DAYS SHE'LL BE IN TOWN...
WHY, I GUESS I CAN DO THAT...
